Servetus, Swedenborg and the Nature of God Andrew M.T. Dibb, 2005-04-19 The Trinity was defined at the Council of Nicaea and the relationship of the human and divine natures of Christ was defined at Chalcedon Very few questioned the Church's depictions of the nature of God Two such mavericks Michael Servetus 1509 1553 and Emanuel Swedenborg 1688 1772 in spite of their Christian educations rejected the Church's creedal understanding of God and the Trinity Although they lived in two different ages the Reformation and Enlightenment and there is no evidence that Swedenborg ever read or even knew of Servetus the two men came to remarkably similar conclusions about the nature of God Each scholar stated that the Trinity does not rest in three Persons but rather takes form in the single person of Jesus Christ the visible God Servetus was a superb scholar in his day He mastered the Church Fathers and possessed an encyclopedic knowledge of the Bible Servetus tragically perished in the flames at Geneva because of his beliefs Swedenborg likewise was a well known and respected scholar philosopher and anatomist He dedicated the last thirty years of his life to biblical research producing a series of some thirty volumes in English of theological writings His work influenced many of the great thinkers and artists of the nineteenth century and continues to be read and studied in many parts of the world today
