Dr. Connie Welch, 2017-01-03 This is a transformational training course designed to give church leaders of all educational levels the basic biblical interpretation homiletical public speaking and leadership skills necessary to fulfill their role as lay leaders It provides all of the resources necessary to facilitate class discussions in each of the four learning modules including recommendations for suggested textbooks power point presentations and other class room materials to be distributed to the students as study guides A church can only go as far as its leaders When the leadership as a whole grows spiritually the church also grows spiritually We grow in the Lord as we learn how to accurately handle the word of truth 2 Timothy 2 15 NASB Focused bible study enhanced with the proper biblical interpretation skills provides a much deeper and more thorough understanding of Gods word and thus strengthens our relationship with Him It also provides the foundation for our theological development and biblical worldview Servants in Charge Keith M. Bailey, 2007-04-01 Servants in Charge is a training guide for elders and deacons with a study guide included Servants in Charge define the roles of elders and deacons and offers practical suggestions for selecting these important leaders And for servants who find themselves in charge there are guidelines toward effective and fruitful ministry Have you ever been in an office or a place of business when someone walked in and asked Who s in charge here Can it be that the people who enter your church ask the same question but it is important to realize the answer is not a mystery In a beautiful parable about His second coming Jesus made it clear that His servants are in charge These people are known not so much for their position or power but for their attitude of true servant hood In Servants in Charge we find that Dr Bailey deals with the topics of who a deacon and elder are to be to what their qualifications are from a scriptural basis He
