Memories of the Heart Kerry Aldridge, RN, 2016-02-12 Anyone who has lived life long enough already knows that with tremendous love also comes tremendous loss Often we are faced with a life limiting illness before the loss leaving us time to anticipate our next move Other times the loss comes suddenly leaving us in shock and unsure where to turn next Through both professional experiences as a hospice nurse and personal experiences as a widow there is no question that Kerry Aldridge understands our pain fears and grief process In her touching memoir Kerry shares the story of how she and her late husband Jack forged their way through his fourteen year battle with lung cancer one day at a time with gratitude and grace While recalling stories from their life together and his subsequent illness Kerry addresses her difficult transition from being a hospice nurse to being the wife of a loved one whose health was failing In addition to providing valuable insight regarding the different facets of grief Kerry also provides reassurance that the more we understand death and grief the less we have to fear Memories of the Heart shares the story of one woman's journey as her husband battled terminal illness and she learned to find the balance between her job as a hospice nurse and her soul's purpose to provide comfort and love

Cleveland's Department Stores Christopher Faircloth, 2009 Originating as simple one or two room storefront operations Cleveland's department stores grew as population and industry in the region boomed throughout the late 19th century and the first half of the 20th They moved into ever larger and elaborate structures in an attempt to woo the shopping dollars of blue collar and genteel Clevelanders alike Stores such as Halle's Higbee's May Company Bailey Company Sterling Lindner Davis and others both competed with and complemented one another all the while leaving an indelible mark on the culture of northeast Ohio and beyond From the humble origins of Halle s horse drawn delivery wagons and the elaborate design of Higbee s on Public Square to Christmas favorites like Mr Jingeling and the massive Christmas tree at Sterling Lindner Davis it is all here in crisp black and white images many of which have not been seen in print for decades
