De Re Contextualizing Conference Interpreting Interpreters In The Ivory Tower Benjamins Translation Library:

De-/Re-Contextualizing Conference Interpreting Ebru Diriker, 2004-08-26 This groundbreaking study explores Simultaneous Conference Interpreting SI by focusing on interpreters as professionals working in socio cultural contexts and on the interdependency between these contexts and actual SI behavior While previous research on SI has been dominated by cognitive and psycholinguistic approaches Diriker s work explores SI in relation to the broader and more immediate socio cultural contexts by investigating the representation of the professional in the meta discourse and by exploring the presence of interpreters and the nature of the interpreted utterance at an actual conference Making use of participant observations interviews and analysis of conference transcripts Diriker challenges some of the widely held assumptions about SI She suggests that the interpreter s delivery represents not only the speaker but a multiplicity of speaker positions and that this multiplicity may well be a source of tension or vulnerability as well as strength for interpreters Her analysis also highlights how interpreters negotiate meaning in SI and underscores the need for more concerted efforts to explore SI in authentic contexts De- Ebru Diriker, 2004

Conflict Marija Todorova, Lucía Ruiz Rosendo, 2025-11-28 The Routledge Handbook of Translating and Interpreting Conflict offers a comprehensive exploration of the roles translators and interpreters play in conflict settings Spanning diverse geographical regions and historical periods this volume examines how language professionals contribute to military operations humanitarian aid peacebuilding and asylum processes The Handbook addresses pressing issues such as the recruitment and protection of interpreters ethical dilemmas emotional and psychological challenges and the evolving use of technology in conflict zones It also includes emerging topics such as the role of women interpreters the translation of peace agreements and the impact of environmental conflicts Drawing on a wide range of case studies from the medieval Iberian peninsula to the ongoing conflict in Ukraine the book blends historical insights with contemporary examples offering a truly global perspective Methodologically diverse chapters range from archival research and ethnographic studies to interviews memoir and documentary film analyses and micro histories of individual interpreters This volume is an essential resource for researchers practitioners students and anyone interested in understanding how language shapes and responds to the complexities of conflict It highlights the critical yet often overlooked contributions of translators and interpreters in some of the world s most challenging situations

In Translation □ Reflections, Refractions, Transformations Paul St-Pierre, Prafulla C. Kar, 2007-05-16 With contributions by researchers from India Europe North America and the Caribbean In Translation Reflections refractions transformations touches on questions of method and on topics including copyright cultural hybridity globalization identity construction and minority languages which are important for the disciplinary development of translation studies but also of interest to other fields as well most notably comparative literature cultural studies and world literature The volume provides a forum for new voices to be heard alongside those of well established scholars and for current concerns to express themselves often focusing on practices in areas of the world other than Europe or North America which have until now tended to dominate the field Acknowledging difference and celebrating it the contributions conceive of translation as a process which reconstitutes and transforms which brings renewal and growth an interaction in a new context a new reading a new writing

100 Years of Conference Interpreting Kilian G. Seeber, 2021-04-20 When Woodrow Wilson David Lloyd George Vittorio Emanuele Orlando and Georges Clemenceau met in Versailles in January 1919 they ushered in the modern era of multilateral diplomacy and perhaps inadvertently laid the foundation for a new profession Indeed communication among these statesmen was only possible thanks to the first conference interpreters For the following 100 years these interpreters would become a permanent fixture at all international multilateral conferences As we celebrate one century of conference interpreting this volume takes stock of some of the most important milestones throughout the history of this exceptional profession and looks at its future at a time when the global COVID 19 pandemic has transformed the world of international meetings Thanks to its refreshingly interactive format this volume gives a voice to different stakeholders in the world of conference interpreting today including practitioners managers researchers and trainers The result is a surprisingly candid and critical discussion of some of the most hotly debated topics in the world of conference interpreting

Conference Interpreting Yves Gambier, Daniel Gile, Christopher Taylor, 1997-06-05 Conference Interpreting What do we know and how is the title of a round table conference Turku 1994 organised to assess the state of the art in conference interpreting research The result is collected in this volume with fully coordinated reports on the round tables The book presents an exciting coverage of the field touching on methodology communication discourse culture neurolinguistic and cognitive aspects quality assessment training and developing skills

Sociocultural Aspects of Translating and Interpreting Anthony Pym, Miriam Shlesinger, Zuzana Jettmarova, 2006-01-01 Translation Studies has recently been searching for connections with Cultural Studies and Sociology This volume brings together a range of ways in which the disciplines can be related particularly with respect to research methodologies The key aspects covered are the agents behind translation the social histories revealed by translations the perceived roles and values of translators in social contexts the hidden power relations structuring publication contexts and the need to review basic concepts of the way social and cultural systems work Special importance is placed on Community Interpreting as a field of social complexity the lessons of which can be applied in many other areas The volume studies translators and interpreters working in a wide range of contexts ranging from censorship in East Germany to English translations in Gujarat Major contributions are made by Agn s Whitfield Daniel Gagnon Franz P chhacker Michaela Wolf Pekka Kujam ki and Rita Kothari with an extensive introduction on methodology by Anthony Pym

Constructing a Sociology of Translation Michaela Wolf, Alexandra Fukari, 2007 The view of translation as a socially regulated activity has opened up a broad field of research in the last few years This volume deals with central questions of the new domain and aims to contribute to the conceptualisation of a general sociology of translation Interdisciplinary in approach it discusses the role of major representatives of sociology like Pierre Bourdieu Bruno Latour Bernard Lahire Anthony Giddens or Niklas Luhmann in establishing a theoretical framework for a sociology of translation Drawing on methodologies from sociology and integrating them into translation studies the book questions some of the established categories in this discipline and calls for a redefinition of long assumed principles The contributions show the social involvement of translation in various fields and focus especially on the translator s position in an emerging sociology of translation Bourdieu s influence in conceptualising this new sub discipline methodological questions and a sociologically oriented meta discussion of translation studies

Expertise and Explicitation in the Translation Process Birgitta Englund Dimitrova, 2005-01-01 This book addresses the complexities of the translation process Informed by theoretical and methodological advances in translation studies research on writing and the expertise paradigm it explores translation as a text reproduction task With triangulation of data from Russian Swedish translation think aloud methodology and computer logging of the writing process it makes a cross sectional comparison of subjects with different amounts of translation experience highlighting crucial aspects of professional competence and expertise in translation The book also elaborates a method for a combined product and process analysis applying it to the study of one type of explicitation increased cohesive explicitness of the target text The results have implications for translation theory and pedagogy This volume will be of interest to translation scholars and translator trainers irrespective of language combination as well as to specialists in Russian and Swedish It will also appeal to researchers on expertise in other domains
