De Reformatie Van 34:

Sola Scriptura Sidney Greidanus, 2001-10-31 This book deals with a key question every pastor faces nearly every week in preparing sermons That question concerns the appropriate manner of treating the historical material of the Scriptures In the history of the Christian Church this material has often served as the basis for moral lessons or intellectual truths This study presents a careful analysis of the way in which this age old controversy surfaced in the revival of redemptive historical theology in the Reformed churches in Holland between the two world wars It also presents the basis for a fresh approach and is thus exceedingly helpful for both pastors and students

Constraint on Trial Gerrit Voogt, 2020-05-25 Constraint on Trial examines the life and thought of Dirck Volckertsz Coornhert 1522 1990 The self made Coornhert was a notary secretary artist poet playwright translator theologian but most of all he was an intrepid controversialist born to contradict indefatigable in his critique of the public church and sects His main concern in polemics and disputations was the defense of freedom of conscience and advocacy of toleration Coornhert s individualism made him eschew any restrictions on personal religious choice His tolerationist writings especially Synod on the Freedom of Conscience 1582 and Trial of the Killing of Heretics 1590 were rooted in his spiritualist belief system He found inspiration in other protagonists of religious freedom such as Sebastian Franck and Castellio but his ideas were uniquely Coornhertian He possessed an unrelenting drive to combat constraint and regarded himself as God s battering ram meant to break down the prison of men s conscience

Being in Christ Hans Burger, 2009-01-01 Being in Christ is a central theme in the message of the gospel It is central for understanding the relation of Christian believers and the church with Jesus Christ their Lord It determines the identity of a Christian It is helpful for understanding the presence of Christ and his salvation in the present It can be developed as an element of a theological ontology Finally it is a theme with a great integrating power In this book the theme being in Christ is analyzed in different perspectives The attention is focused on the reality of being in Christ its ontological implications First two representatives of the Reformed tradition are investigated the English Puritan John Owen and the Dutch Neo Calvinist Herman Bavinck Second a reconstruction of the Pauline and Johannine perspectives on being in Christ is provided Third the theme is examined in the work of the English ethicist Oliver O Donovan and the German Swiss theologian Ingolf U Dalferth In the final chapter the author gives his own systematic theological proposal of a concept of being in Christ

Going Dutch in the Modern Age John Halsey Wood, 2013-04-11 In Going Dutch in the Modern Age John Wood examines how Abraham Kuyper adapted the Dutch church to its modern social context through a new account of the nature of the church and its social position

The Reformation and Revolt in the Low Countries Alastair Duke, 2003-12-19 The Revolt of the Netherlands has long been familiar to English speaking readers but the Reformation there has remained largely a closed book The Reformation in the Low Countries developed along very different lines from German Lutheranism While the decentralised character of political authority ensured the survival of religious dissent a prolonged persecution of heresy postponed the formation of public Protestant churches until after 1572. Conflicting interests and beliefs as well as the war and political struggle shaped the final religious outcome. Local considerations and individual responses played their part alongside the decisions of rulers whether Philip II and his lieutenant the duke of Alva or William the Silent. Alastair Duke's work is of central importance to a proper understanding of both Reformation and Revolt. A Church for a Secular World Marinus De Jong, 2025-09-25. The relationship between the Church and the world has been a subject of debate since the Church's earliest days. Stanley Hauerwas, with his emphasis on the Church as polis, has made a significant contemporary contribution, one that has also faced strong criticism. This study examines the distinctive insights of second-generation neo-Calvinist theologian Klaas Schilder (1890-1952) on this issue. Neo-Calvinism is renowned for its development of Reformed theology, particularly in this area, and Schilder builds on this tradition with a critical eye. Engaging with the increasing secularity of the twentieth century, he carefully interacts with Karl Barth's writings while refining his own perspective. In doing so, Schilder's position comes close to the Anabaptist stance of Hauerwas yet remains firmly rooted in the Reformed understanding of creation.
