Brands; A Collection of Western Camp-Fire Stories Andy Adams,2017-02-15 Andy Adams May 3 1859 September 26 1935 was an American writer of western fiction Andy Adams was born in Indiana His parents were Andrew and Elizabeth Elliott Adams As a boy he helped with the cattle and horses on the family farm During the early 1880s he went to Texas where he stayed for 10 years spending much of that time driving cattle on the western trails In 1890 he tried working as a businessman but the venture failed so he tried gold mining in Colorado and Nevada In 1894 he settled in Colorado Springs where he lived until his death He began writing at the age of 43 publishing his most successful book The Log of a Cowboy in 1903 His other works include A Texas Matchmaker 1904 The Outlet 1905 Cattle Brands 1906 Reed Anthony Cowman An Autobiography 1907 Wells Brothers 1911 and The Ranch on the Beaver 1927 Cattle Brands Andy Adams,2020-02-29 The cattle were looking as fine as silk The lay overs had rested them The horses were in good trim considering the amount of wet weather we had had Here and there was a nigger brand but these saddle galls were unavoidable when using wet blankets

The cattle were twos and threes We had left western Texas with a few over thirty two hundred head and were none shy We could have counted out more but on some of them the Hat brand had possibly faded out We went into a cosy camp early in the evening Everything needful was at hand wood water and grass Cowmen in those days prided themselves on their outfits and Carter was a trifle gone on his men With the cattle on hand drinking was out of the question so the only way to show us any regard was to bring us a box of cigars He must have brought those cigars from Texas for they were wrapped in a copy of the Fort Worth Gazette It was a month old and full of news Every man in the outfit read and reread it There were several train robberies reported in it but that was common in those days They had nominated for Governor The Little Cavalryman Sol Ross and this paper estimated that his majority would be at least two hundred thousand We were all anxious to get home in time to vote for him Theodore Baughman was foreman of our outfit Baugh was a typical trail boss He had learned to take things as they came play the cards as they fell and not fret himself about little things that could not be helped If we had been a month behind he would never have thought to explain the why or wherefore to old man Carter Several years after this when he was scouting for the army he rode up to a herd over on the Chisholm trail and asked one of the tail men Son have you seen anything of about three hundred nigger soldiers No said the cowboy Well said Baugh I ve lost about that many
