J. L. Kool-Blokland, De zorg gewogen. Zeven eeuwen godshuizen in Middelburg (Dissertatie Tilburg 1990; Werken Koninklijk Zeeuwsch genootschap der wetenschappen, VII; Middelburg: Koninklijk Zeeuwsch genootschap der wetenschappen, 1990, 623 blz., ISBN 90 70534 16 9, ISSN 0168-7182).

Toen enige jaren geleden vast kwam te staan, dat het gasthuis van Middelburg door middel van een fusie met twee Vlissingse ziekenhuizen zou verdwijnen, achtte het bestuur van de Middelburgse godshuizen de tijd rijp om een vakvrouw de opdracht te geven de geschiedenis van dit instituut vast te leggen. De schrijfster kon beschikken over het rijke en goed bewaarde archief van de godshuizen. Daar stond tegenover, dat bij het bombardement van Middelburg in 1940 zowel het stadsarchief als het archief van de hervormde gemeente (met daarin dat van de diaconie) verloren gingen. Zeelands hoofdstad heeft bovendien nooit een goede geschiedschrijver of kroniekur gekend, zodat de kennis van de geschiedenis van de stad beperkt is. In november 1990 promoveerde de schrijfster op het resultaat aan de Katholieke Universiteit Brabant (promotor: prof. dr. H. F. J. M. van den Eerenbeemt). De studie is opgesplitst in twee delen: het eerste gedeelte handelt over het eigenlijke gasthuis, dat voor het eerst in 1289 in de bronnen wordt vermeld. Het tweede deel gaat over het armenweeshuis (geopend in 1606) en het burgerweeshuis (geopend in 1720) en hun voorgangers. Aan een aantal reeds eerder verdwenen instellingen werden afzonderlijke paragrafen toebedeeld. Het betreft de lazarij die in 1641 wegens het te gering aantal zieken werd opgeheven, het simpelhuis, bestemd voor krankzinnigen en in 1845 gesloten omdat de regenten niet bereid waren te voldoen aan de eisen die de krankzinnigenwet van 1841 stelde, en het oude mannen- en vrouwenhuis dat in 1970 aan een andere stichting werd overgedragen.

Het geheel overziende mag gesteld worden, dat de geschiedenis van deze instellingen, met uitzondering van de periode vanaf 1945, op adequate wijze te boek is gesteld. De opdrachtgever heeft alleszins waar voor zijn geld gekregen, een bewijs dat inschakeling van vakhistorici ook in de sector volksgezondheid een goed produkt kan opleveren. Ook voor hen die geïnteresseerd zijn in de geschiedenis van Middelburg is het boek onmisbaar, al is het alleen maar om de grote rijkdom aan kleurrijke en boeiende gegevens, waarmee de schrijfster haar boek heeft gelardeerd.

Bezien vanuit het gezichtspunt dat het hier om een proefschrift gaat, valt het oordeel minder gunstig uit. Godshuizen zoals hier beschreven waren instellingen die zich bezig hielden met de armenzorg. Men kan ze onderverdelen in gasthuizen, die mensen voor kortere of langere tijd opnamen, en in armentafels, die steun gaven in de vorm van geld of goederen. Vanaf het eind van de negentiende eeuw ontwikkelden veel gasthuizen zich tot ziekenhuizen of bejaardenoord. De charitas raakte daarmee op de achtergrond. De opdracht luidde om de geschiedenis van slechts een deel van deze instellingen, namelijk die welke in 1811 verenigd werden onder het bestuur van de godshuizen, te boekstaven. In feite wordt zo het spectrum van de pre-industriële institutionele armenzorg en later dat van de gezondheidszorg doormidden gesneden. Af en toe merkt de lezer wel, dat er nog meer verwante instellingen waren; zo wordt gesproken over een Luthers weeshuis, een werkhuis en een goed draaiend particulier ziekenhuis aan de Lange Viele, terwijl de beide weeshuizen aanvankelijk onder de diaconie ressorteerden. De Zorg Gewogenzeven Eeuwen Godshuizen In Middelburg:

Women and Work in Premodern Europe Merridee L. Bailey, Tania M. Colwell, Julie Hotchin, 2018-05-20 This book re-evaluates and extends understandings about how work was conceived and what it could entail for women in the premodern period in Europe from c 1100 to c 1800 It does this by building on the impressive growth in literature on women's working experiences and by adopting new interpretive approaches that expand received assumptions about what constituted work for women While attention to the diversity of women's contributions to the economy has done much to make the breadth of women's experiences of labour visible this volume takes a more expansive conceptual approach to the notion of work and considers the social and cultural dimensions in which activities were construed and valued as work This interdisciplinary collection thus advances concepts of work that encompass cultural activities in addition to more traditional economic understandings of work as employment or labour for production The chapters reconceptualise and explore work for women by asking how the working lives of historical women were enacted and represented and analyse the relationships that shaped women's experiences of work across the European premodern period

The First Modern Economy Jan de Vries, Ad van der Woude, 1997-05-28 The First Modern Economy provides a comprehensive economic history of the Netherlands during its rise to European economic leadership the Golden Age and subsequent decline 1500-1815 The authors argue that it was the first modern economy and defend their position with detailed analyses of its major economic sectors as well as investigations of social structure and macro economic performance Dutch economic history is placed in its European and world context and intercontinental and colonial trade are discussed fully Special emphasis is placed on the environmental context of economic growth and later decline as well as on demographic developments The authors also argue that the Dutch model of development and stagnation is applicable to currently maturing economies

Migration, Settlement and Belonging in Europe, 1500-1930s Steven King, Anne Winter, 2013-11-01 The issues around settlement belonging and poor relief have for too long been understood largely from the perspective of England and Wales This volume offers a pan European survey that encompasses Switzerland Prussia Belgium the

Netherlands and Britain It explores how the conception of belonging changed over time and space from the 1500s onwards how communities dealt with the welfare expectations of an increasingly mobile population that migrated both within and between states the welfare rights that were attached to those who belonged and how ordinary people secured access to welfare resources What emerged was a sophisticated European settlement system which on the one hand structured itself to limit the claims of the poor and yet on the other was peculiarly sensitive to their demands and negotiations

Blackness in Western Europe Dienke Hondius, 2017-09-29 While the study of race relations in the United States continues to inspire and influence European thinking Europeans have yet to confront their own history To be black in Europe whether during the sixteenth century or today means sharing one crucial experience being part of a small but visible minority European slave owners company directors and investors in the distant past maintained an ocean wide gap between themselves and the enslaved in the plantation colonies of the Caribbean In the following centuries this distance persisted Even today to be black in Europe often means to be one of a few black persons in a group A racial pattern of exclusion has characterized European policy for more than four centuries Dienke Hondius identifies ideas and attitudes toward blackness the concept of race as visible difference developed in western Europe She argues that racial discourses are generally dominated by paternalism a concept usually used to explain power structures that is often applied to the nineteenth century Hondius identifies five patterns of paternalism that influenced Europe much earlier and initiated trends of imagery and perception Taking a chronological and thematic approach Hondius first focuses on southern European societies in the Early Modern period and moves to northwest European societies in the Modern period Addressing religion law and science she concludes with a synthesis of developments from the twentieth century to the present

Piety in Practice and Print Koen Goudriaan, 2016 The late Middle Ages provide us with a fascinating religious landscape The quest for new religious ideals and intense spirituality can be observed in movements such as the Modern Devotion and the Franciscan Observance marking the late fourteenth and fifteenth century with new institutional dynamics and the formation of a variety of religious communities The dissemination of these new religious ideas and ideals profited from the advent of the printing press It is these subjects that Koen Goudriaan professor of Medieval History at VU University Amsterdam has studied for decades This volume edited by Anna Dlabová and Ad Tervoort presents a collection of eleven of his best essays It focuses on three themes the institutional parameters of late medieval religious movements the cult of remembrance and the interaction between religious movements and the early printing press Together these essays provide a representative sample of Goudriaan's substantial contribution to scholarship on late medieval history

Black Europe and the African Diaspora Darlene Clark Hine, Trica Danielle Keaton, Stephen Small, 2023-12-11 The presence of Blacks in a number of European societies has drawn increasing interest from scholars policymakers and the general public This interdisciplinary and multi disciplinary collection penetrates the multifaceted Black presence in Europe and in so doing complicates the notions of race belonging desire and identities
