China Missions In Crisis:

A History of Christianity in Asia, Vol. II Samuel Hugh Moffett, 2014-07-30 This second volume of Samuel Moffett's acclaimed History of Christianity in Asia illustrates the advance of the modern missionary movement in the continent of its birth. Like the first volume, it makes available immense research in a readable and engaging narrative. Moffett brings into dramatic relief events that illustrate both the broad patterns and the vital details of the spread of Christianity on a continent.

Christianity in China Xiaoxin Wu, 2015-07-17 Now revised and updated to incorporate numerous new materials, this is the major source for researching American Christian activity in China, especially that of missions and missionaries. It provides a thorough introduction and guide to primary and secondary sources on Christian enterprises and individuals in China that are preserved in hundreds of libraries, archives, historical societies, headquarters of religious orders, and other repositories in the United States. It includes data from the beginnings of Christianity in China in the early eighth century through 1952, when American missionary activity in China virtually ceased. For this new edition, the institutional base has shifted from the Princeton Theological Seminary Protestant to the Ricci Institute for Chinese Western Cultural Relations at the University of San Francisco Jesuit, reflecting the ecumenical nature of this monumental undertaking. The China Mission Year Book, 1920

Christianity in China Wu Xiaoxin, 2017-03-02 A bibliographical guide to the works in American libraries concerning the Christian missionary experience in China. The Spirit of Missions, 1898 Includes the proceedings of the annual meeting of the Society. China Missions in Crisis Joseph Krael, 1964 China Mission Audrey Ronning Topping, 2013-10-07 When the Reverend Halvor Ronning, his sister Thea, and fellow missionary Hannah Rorem set out in 1891 to found a Lutheran mission and school in the interior of China, they could not have foreseen the ways in which that decision would ripple across generations of the Ronning family. Halvor and Hannah would marry, and their son Chester, born in Hubei Province in 1894, would spend over half his life in China as a student, teacher, and a Canadian diplomat. Chester's daughter, Audrey, studied at Nanking University during the Chinese Civil War and later spent decades reporting on the People's Republic of China for the New York Times Foreign Affairs and many other publications. During the last century, Audrey Topping notes, a member of our family was there for almost every event of importance. China Mission presents a personal history of her family's ties to their adopted home and the momentous events that radically changed one of the most powerful countries in the world. The Ronnings found Imperial China at the end of the nineteenth century to be a nation on the cusp of change, and they were swept up as both observers and participants in these dramatic events. During their years as missionaries, the Ronnings witnessed the Boxer Uprising in 1898, the subsequent Palace Coup, and the Siege of Peking, the death of the last emperor, and the collapse of China's dynasty system. They also endured personal challenges: famine, births, deaths, and the almost constant threat of attack that were countered with songs, celebrations, friendship, and a deep appreciation for the culture of which they had become a part. Later, Chester Ronning would return to China as would his daughter Audrey bringing their family's story to the end of the twentieth century. This extraordinary account compiled from the diaries, letters, and photographs of three generations offers modern readers a rare and remarkable look at a world long gone.

A Companion to the Early Modern Catholic Global

Missions Ronnie Po-Chia Hsia, 2018-01-03. A survey of the latest scholarship on Catholic missions between the 16th and 18th centuries. This collection of fourteen essays by historians from eight countries offers not only a global view of the organization, finances, personnel, and history of Catholic missions to the Americas, Africa, and Asia, but also the complex political, cultural, and religious contexts of the missionary fields. The conquests and colonization of the Americas presented a different stage for the drama of evangelization in contrast to that of Africa and Asia; the inhospitable landscape of Africa; the implacable Islamic societies of the Ottoman, Safavid, and Mughal empires; and the self-assured regimes of Ming, Qing, China, Nguyen dynasty, Vietnam, and Tokugawa Japan. Contributors are Tara Alberts, Mark Z. Christensen, Dominique Deslandres, R. Po-chia Hsia, Aliocha Maldavsky, Anne McGinness, Christoph Nebgen, Adina Ruiu, Alan Strathern, M. Antoni Jerler, Fred Vermote, Guillermo Wilde, Christian Windler, and Ines Zupanov.

Catholic Missionaries in Early Modern Asia Nadine Amsler, Andreea Badea, Bernard Heyberger, Christian Windler, 2019-10-24. Over recent decades, historians have become increasingly interested in early modern Catholic missions in Asia as laboratories of cultural contact. This book builds on recent ground-breaking research on early modern Catholic missions, which has shown that missionaries in Asia cooperated with and accommodated the needs of local agents rather than being uncompromising promoters of post-Tridentine doctrine and devotion. Bringing together some of the most renowned and innovative researchers from Anglophone countries and continental Europe, this volume investigates how missionaries' entanglements with local societies across Asia contributed to processes of localization within the early modern Catholic church. The focus of the volume is on missionaries' adaptation to four ideal, typical social settings that played an eminent role in early modern Asian missions: 1. the symbolically loaded princely court; 2. the city as a space of especially dense communication; 3. the countryside where missionary presence was only rarely permanent; 4. and the household, a central arena of conversion in early modern Asian societies. Shining a fresh light onto the history of early modern Catholic missions and the early modern Eurasian cultural exchange, this will be an important book for any scholar of religious history, history of cultural contact, global history, and early modern history in Asia. Chapter 8 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives (CC BY-NC-ND) 4.0 license.
