Color The Language Of Light:

THE LANGUAGE OF LIGHT ANTONIO PETRILLO, 2017-01-19 The language of light was written by Antonio Petrillo who dedicated the last years of his short life to its drafting Antonio was a friend of mine and a teacher and I applied his teachings about light and lighting of artworks during many years of my career I had long promised to dear Luisa Antonio's wife to publish his unreleased work but I never found the time and serenity to handle it due my work and teaching I do it now taking advantage also of the skill and availability of Roberta Todisco who oversaw the research of images and the book's graphics It's left to me to try to recreate the writing style of his work given that it would be impossible to re-propose an updated version without Antonio's advice, suggestions and affection that He always has given to me undeservedly Francesco Murano The Language of Light Terrence Duffy, 1897 The Language of Light Kathleen Brady, 2022-02-22 p It's 1982 and China has just barely begun to open to the West When Lu McLean sells all her possessions and leaves Los Angeles to study Mandarin Chinese at the Beijing Language Institute she imagines a life of serious scholarship and an eventual job as a translator at the United Nations On the night of her arrival Lu meets the captivating Ming a Chinese teacher at the institute Still recovering from a failed ten year relationship Lu has vowed never to give her heart away again But as Lu struggles to balance Beijing's simple beauty with the confounding rigidity of ageless custom her feelings for Ming deepen She soon finds herself vacillating between letting herself love Ming and her escalating fears about the certain barriers that would prevent them from ever navigating a life together Against the backdrop of China's Spiritual Pollution and a tightening cultural climate it becomes clear that Ming cannot leave and Lu cannot stay indefinitely Events soon force Lu and Ming to balance the love that binds them against the social and political forces that threaten to tear them apart The Language of Light seamlessly interweaves the expressive and timeless beauty of the Chinese language with the poignant tale of a profound love inveighing against the oppressive climate of cultural and political change The Language of Color in the First Goetheanum Hilde Raske, 2023-05-25 Rudolf Steiner's architectural masterpiece the double domed building known as the first Goetheanum featured decorated ceilings that were designed and partly painted by Steiner himself utilizing vegetable colors and a new layering technique Steiner emphasized that he was seeking a new artistic conception based on a conscious understanding of the nature of color Contemporaries report the extraordinary effect of the domed ceilings' paintings combined with the multicolored light emanating from the engraved glass windows The cupolas depicted the creation and ages of the world the initiators of the various cultural epochs and the figure of Christ Tragically the complete work of art that was the first Goetheanum burned down on New Year's Eve 1922 so today we can only get an impression of the lost paintings and windows from Rudolf Steiner's pastel sketches and drawings and a handful of photographs In this lavish volume the result of decades of research and study Hilde Raske provides a detailed examination of the artistic work on the two cupolas including Rudolf Steiner's draft sketches and his written and verbal statements Featuring 30 color and more than 100 black and white
