1911 children's novel The Secret Garden The Secret Garden has delighted generations of children for more than a century. And now you can enjoy this novel as you color it. From the very first line of Chapter 1 titled There is No One Left When Mary Lennox was sent to Misselthwaite Manor to live with her uncle, everybody said she was the most disagreeable looking child ever seen. It was true too. She had a little thin face and a little thin body, thin light hair and a sour expression. Her hair was yellow and her face was yellow because she had been born in India and had always been ill in one way or another to the first line of the final chapter Chapter 27 entitled In the Garden of The Secret Garden. In each century since the beginning of the world, wonderful things have been discovered. In the last century more amazing things were found out than in any century before. In this new century, hundreds of things still more astounding will be brought to light through all the twists and turns of this timeless story. There is so much to learn, enjoy and inspire. Whether you are listening to the audiobook, hearing the book read aloud or watching a movie adaptation, coloring text from and graphics related to The Secret Garden can be a relaxing, soothing activity. We hope that you enjoy coloring it as much as we enjoyed creating it for you.
