Combermere School And The Barbadian Society:

Combermere School and the Barbadian Society Keith A. P. Sandiford, Earle H. Newton, 1995 Written by two former students of perhaps one of the Caribbean's most famous educational institutions, this book elucidates the school's evolution and analyzes its contribution to the development of Barbadian society. Although scarcity of adequate documentation results in an uneven treatment of different periods, the work examines the roles of various headmasters and their administrations in the school's evolution. Additionally, it places Combermere and the changes it underwent within the larger framework of societal changes that Barbados experienced. Useful case study. Handbook of Latin American Studies v 58

Cricket Nurseries of Colonial Barbados Keith A. P. Sandiford, 1998 This work offers an intriguing and important analysis of the role played by three prestigious grammar schools: Combermere School, Harrison College, and the Loge School, in establishing the cricket cult in Barbados and ultimately throughout the Caribbean. It goes far towards explaining why Barbadians have traditionally played such excellent cricket. This book is the first to make such extensive use of Barbadian school magazines as primary sources for the study of social history. The author stresses the statistical first-class records of about 200 alumni of the three schools and, in so doing, furnishes sport sociologists with a considerable new body of empirical data for future use. Although it focuses on a Barbadian situation, the book should interest cricket enthusiasts everywhere with its many photographs and its lucid and candid treatment of some of the most important personalities in regional and world cricket, a few of whom are still actively involved in the sport today.

Ideology, Regionalism, and Society in Caribbean History Shane J. Pantin, Jerome Teelucksingh, 2017-09-19 This volume collects new angles and perspectives on issues shaping the development of the Caribbean. Bringing together essays on regional integration, identity, and culture, and focusing on foundational personalities and institutions in the region, this book opens up new lines of inquiry on twentieth-century Caribbean history. Essays examine popular perspectives of the West Indies Federation, the intersections of ideology and governance through key figures such as C. L. R. James and Rawson Williamson, the socioeconomic context of Caribbean foodways and Carnival as a tool of cultural diplomacy. Integration is a critical theme throughout. Pointing to the region's rich cultural and historical heritage, this book explores how Caribbean unification may provide a way forward for this patchwork of island territories facing the challenges of the twenty-first century.

Cricketing Cultures in Conflict Boria Majumdar, J. A. Mangan, 2004-05-20 The 2003 World Cup was of vital importance to the participating countries. For India, a world cup triumph would make cricket the nation's leading industry; for the host, South Africa, a successful campaign might realize its dream of political unity. Dealing with themes of racial, political, unification, commercialization, the media, and globalisation, this book explores the role of cricket and sport in each of the competing nations. Looking at recent developments such as match-fixing, the abolition of the quota system, and the performances of the South African national team, the collection examines the importance of the Cricket World Cup in providing a unified political, social, and economic stage from which a united South African identity can finally emerge. The book also explores the role of the Cricket World Cup in relation to West Indian unity Pakistani economic regeneration Sri Lankan Kenyan and Zimbabwean peace Education and Constructions of Childhood David Blundell,2012-01-12 Education and Constructions of Childhood considers the social construction of childhood through the institutions of education and schooling Grounded in a strong conceptual theoretical framework this accessible text will guide the reader through this evolving area Reflective exercises chapter summaries and useful websites will encourage and support student learning and the application of new concepts Education and Constructions of Childhood is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students on Education Studies and related courses Interrogating Caribbean Masculinities Rhoda Reddock,2004 Annotation This anthology of new Caribbean scholarship on masculinities establishes masculinity studies as an important new area of research and theorizing in the Caribbean The content of this volume reflects a range of disciplinary approaches including anthropology history international relations literary criticism and art and installation The book is of interest for those teaching masculinity studies women and gender studies and for policy makers interested in gender relations in the Caribbean and the Caribbean diaspora BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke,2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora Worrell Simon Lister,2024-06-06 WINNER OF THE MCC CRICKET SOCIETY BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD The definitive telling of the life of a West Indian hero Sir Clive Lloyd The brilliant all rounder Frank Worrell had to wait until 1960 to become the first permanent Black captain of the West Indies cricket team denied for a decade by the elitism insularity and racism of Caribbean cricket s rulers When his chance finally came Worrell transformed a talented but unfocused team into the most exciting side in the world and led his men into unforgettable series against Australia and England Worrell was universally admired as one of cricket's great captains when he was knighted in 1964 but three years later he was dead aged just forty two Not merely an extraordinarily talented and record breaking sportsman he served the University of the West Indies after his retirement along with the cricket team and the political federation one of the three truly unifying elements across a fractious and diverse region This biography by the author of the acclaimed Fire in Babylon and with a foreword by Sir Clive Lloyd is the definitive telling of Frank Worrell's life and legacy It reveals how an upbringing in Barbados cricketing adventures around the world and a determination not to be cowed by the powers that ran island cricket shaped a great West Indian cricketer into a great West Indian who changed the game forever
