Parenting in the Zombie Apocalypse Steven J. Kirsh,2019-06-04 Parenting is difficult under the best of circumstances but extremely daunting when humanity faces cataclysmic annihilation When the dead rise hardship violence and the ever present threat of flesh eating zombies will adversely affect parents and children alike Depending on their age children will have little chance of surviving a single encounter with the undead let alone the unending peril of the Zombie Apocalypse The key to their survival and thus the survival of the species will be the caregiving they receive Drawing on psychological theory and real world research on developmental status grief trauma mental illness and child rearing in stressful environments this book critically examines factors influencing parenting and the likely outcomes of different caregiving techniques in the hypothetical landscape of the living dead Living with the Living Dead Greg Garrett,2017 In Living with the Living Dead Greg Garrett shows that the zombie apocalypse has become an archetypal narrative for the contemporary world in part because zombies can represent a variety of global threats from terrorism to Ebola from economic uncertainty to mental illness But paradoxically this narrative also offers human beings a chance to find emotional and spiritual comfort these apocalyptic stories about individuals facing the imminent prospect of grisly death also offer us wisdom about living in community present us with real world ethical problems and invite us into a conversation about what it means to survive
