Filipino Studies Martin F. Manalansan, Augusto Espiritu, 2016-05-10 15 Diasporic and Liminal Subjectivities in the Age of Empire Beyond Biculturalism in the Case of the Two Ongs 16 The Legacy of Undesirability Filipino TNTs Irregular Migrants and Outlaws in the US Cultural Imaginary 17 Home and The Filipino Channel Stabilizing Economic Security Migration Patterns and Diaspora through New Technologies 18 Come Back Home Soon The Pleasures and Agonies of Homeland Visits About the Contributors Index Sustainable Development-every Filipino's Concern Fe San Juan Hidalgo, 1999 Let the Church Meet in Your House! Emerson T. Manaloto, 2019-10-31 The communities in which we live all suffer alienation from God and the sin social disorder and brokenness that follows As Christians we yearn to see our communities saturated with the good news of Jesus Christ but there are countless obstacles to overcome in our churches and mission agencies as we seek to fulfil this vision In this book Emerson Manaloto offers the model of New Testament based house churches as the vehicle for gospel ministry in communities around the world with specific applications for the Filipino context Examining four areas leaders learners lessons and locations Dr Manaloto presents foundational principles of the New Testament that can be the basis for our own contemporary churches and ministry Manaloto critically analyzes the house church in terms of its concepts in the first century its context in the Greco Roman world and its practices as outlined in the New Testament This analysis is then used to draw conclusions for how twenty first century small groups in the Philippines can be stable mature and multiply resulting in the birth of more churches locally and globally and the transformation of lives and communities as they encounter Jesus Christ Prioritizing Urban Children, Teachers, and Schools through Professional Development Schools Pia Lindquist Wong, Ronald David Glass, 2009-03-17 How can we better educate disadvantaged urban students Drawing on over five years experience in a broad partnership involving twelve urban professional development schools in five districts a teachers union a comprehensive public university and several community based organizations the contributors to this volume describe how they worked together to help disadvantaged urban students through an innovative professional development program By networking with educators at different levels and coordinating curriculum projects they were able to begin overcoming rigid and ineffective mandates and curricula tied to standardized test scores and get through to their students on more meaningful and productive levels The contributors share their successes and failures with these efforts as well as insights related to the ethical political and academic challenges faced by professional development schools Lessons from Nationalist Struggle Jose Dalisay Jr., 2017-11-15 An Unknown Chapter in Philippine History Emmanuel Quiason Yap possessed a unique perspective on world affairs This was largely a product of his upbringing and life experience which underpinned his great love of country Through his life we see a clear view of the road not taken This book portrays one of the most significant and turbulent chapters in Philippine history in this context The period from the late 1950s to the early 1970s witnessed a resurgence of the nationalist movement the election of Ferdinand Marcos as president the establishment of the Communist Party of the Philippines the First Quarter Storm the bombing of Plaza Miranda and the declaration of martial law Manoling Yap cast a different light on these events including the roles of Marcos and Ninoy and Cory Aquino Inevitably many disagreed with his analysis and some dismissed him as a Communist Ironically it was during this period that his career reached both its zenith and nadir Because of illness he was unable to write his autobiography as he had always intended But his analysis and interpretation of important events present an alternative viewpoint that must be known This is Manoling Yap s story

Translanguaging with Multilingual Students Ofelia García,Tatyana Kley,2016-06-10 Looking closely at what happens when translanguaging is actively taken up to teach emergent bilingual students across different contexts this book focuses on how it is already happening in classrooms as well as how it can be implemented as a pedagogical orientation It extends theoretical understandings of the concept and highlights its promises and challenges Using a Transformative Action Research design six empirically grounded ethnographic case studies describe how translanguaging is used in lesson designs and in the spontaneous moves made by teachers and students during specific teaching moments The cases shed light on two questions How when and why is translanguaging taken up or resisted by students and teachers What does its use mean for them Although grounded in a U S context and specifically in classrooms in New York State Translanguaging with Multilingual Students links findings and theories to different global contexts to offer important lessons for educators worldwide
