Citizenship Identity And Education In Muslim Communities Essays On Attachment And Obligation:

Citizenship, Identity, and Education in Muslim Communities Michael S. Merry, Jeffrey Ayala Milligan, 2010-12-15

This volume represents a rich multi disciplinary contribution to an expanding literature on citizenship identity and education in a variety of majority and minority Muslim communities Among its aims is to establish the theoretical possibility of a philosophically and doctrinally plausible overlapping consensus between Islam and democracy to identify respect for difference as one critical component of that overlapping consensus and to examine a range of Islamic educational practices in various socio historical contexts Accordingly each of these essays offers important insights into the various ways one may identify with and participate in different democratic and democratizing societies to which Muslims belong Muslim Education in the 21st Century Sa'eda Buang, Phyllis Ghim-Lian Chew, 2014-05-09 Muslim Education in the 21st Century reinvestigates the current state of affairs in Muslim education in Asia whilst at the same time paying special attention to Muslim schools perception of educational changes and the reasons for such changes It highlights and explores the important question of whether the Muslim school has been reinventing itself in the field of pedagogy and curriculum to meet the challenges of the 21st century education It interrogates the schools whose curriculum content carry mostly the subject of religion and Islam as its school culture Typologically these include state owned or privately run madrasah or dayah in Aceh Indonesia pondok traditional Muslim schools largely prevalent in the East Malaysian states and Indonesia pesantren Muslim boarding schools commonly found in Indonesia imam khatip schools in Turkey and other variations in Asia Contributed by a host of international experts Muslim Education in the 21st Century focuses on how Muslim educators strive to deal with the educational contingencies of their times and on Muslim schools perception of educational changes and reasons for such changes It will be of great interest to anyone interested in Asian and Muslim education The Wiley Handbook of Home Education Milton Gaither, 2016-12-12 The Wiley Handbook of Home Education is a comprehensive collection of the latest scholarship in all aspects of home education in the United States and abroad Presents the latest findings on academic achievement of home schooled children issues of socialization and legal argumentation about home schooling and government regulation A truly global perspective on home education this handbook includes the disparate work of scholars outside of the U S Typically understudied topics are addressed such as the emotional lives of home educating mothers and the impact of home education on young adults Writing is accessible to students scholars educators and anyone interested in home schooling issues Religious Education and the Challenge of Pluralism Adam B. Seligman, 2014-09-01 The essays in this volume offer a groundbreaking comparative analysis of religious education and state policies towards religious education in seven different countries and in the European Union as a whole They pose a challenging and crucial question can religious education effect positive civic change and foster solidarity across different ethnic and religious communities International Handbook of Migration, Minorities and Education Zvi Bekerman, Thomas Geisen, 2011-10-06 Migrants and minorities are always at risk of being caught in essentialized cultural definitions and being denied the right to express their cultural preferences because they are perceived as threats to social cohesion Migrants and minorities respond to these difficulties in multiple ways as active agents in the pedagogical political social and scientific processes that position them in this or that cultural sphere On the one hand they reject ascribed cultural attributes while striving towards integration in a variety of social spheres e g school and workplace in order to achieve social mobility On the other hand they articulate demands for cultural self determination This discursive duality is met with suspicion by the majority culture For societies with high levels of migration or with substantial minority cultures questions related to the meaning of cultural heterogeneity and the social and cultural limits of learning and communication e g migration education or critical multiculturalism are very important It is precisely here where the chances for new beginnings and new trials become of great importance for educational theorizing which urgently needs to find answers to current questions about individual freedom community cultural affiliations and social and democratic cohesion Answers to these questions must account for both political and learning perspectives at the macro mezzo and micro contextual levels The contributions of this edited volume enhance the knowledge in the field of migrant minority education with a special emphasis on the meaning of culture and social learning for educational processes

Secularism, Decolonisation, and the Cold War in South and Southeast Asia Clemens Six, 2017-07-20 The intensifying conflicts between religious communities in contemporary South and Southeast Asia signify the importance of gaining a clearer understanding of how societies have historically organised and mastered their religious diversity Based on extensive archival research in Asia Europe and the United States this book suggests a new approach to interpreting and explaining secularism not as a Western concept but as a distinct form of practice in 20th century global history In six case studies on the contemporary history of India Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore it analyses secularism as a project to create a high degree of distance between the state and religion during the era of decolonisation and the emerging Cold War between 1945 and 1970 To demonstrate the interplay between local and transnational dynamics the case studies look at patterns of urban planning the struggle against religious nationalism conflicts around religious education and anti communism as a dispute over secularism and social reform The book emphasises in particular the role of non state actors as key supporters of secular statehood a role that has thus far not received sufficient attention A novel approach to studying secularism in Asia the book discusses the different ways that global transformations such as decolonisation and the Cold War interacted with local relations to reshape and relocate religion in society It will be of interest to scholars of Religious Studies International Relations and Politics Studies of Empire Cold War Studies Subaltern Studies Modern Asian History and South and Southeast Asian Studies
