City of Slow Dissolve John Chávez, 2012-09-15 Before recovery comes the preparation to recover In City of Slow Dissolve John Chavez takes readers through this journey the slow dissolve the unpacking and re packing of self that must take place before healing can begin Fusing language poetry lyric and narrative Chavez uses syntactical play rhythm and repetition of key words and lines to lend immediacy to emotions and actions He tips words and images on their heads and invites readers to reexamine people and places that are at once familiar and utterly unfamiliar Report to the Department of the Interior Diane Glancy, 2015-03-15 Constructed as a series of reports to the Department of the Interior these poems of grief anger defiance and resistance focus on the oppressive educational system adopted by Indian boarding schools and the struggle Native Americans experienced to retain and honor traditional ways of life and culture The Arranged Marriage Jehanne Dubrow, 2015-03 Jehanne Dubrow in her fifth book of poems tells us a story so compelling that we put down our tasks and turn to her voice Hilda Raz author of All Odd and Splendid Progress on the Subject of Immensity Leslie Ullman, 2013-08-30 Leslie Ullman's deeply meditative poems reflect an individual's exploration of herself and her relationship to the natural world and other people The Southwest is the setting of her inquiry and her work is grounded in the rhythms of the natural world The poems have a quiet intensity about them that engages the reader Provided by publisher Losing the Ring in the River Marjorie Saiser, 2013-03-30 Spare and incisive the poems in Losing the Ring in the River deal with three strong women Clara Emma and Liz women who are tough often sassy and have dreams that aren't quelled by the realities they face Saiser deftly explores the undercurrents connecting three generations and is at her most powerful when she explores how lives are restricted and sometimes painfully damaged by what people cannot or will not share with one another Saiser's poetry is as harsh as it is beautiful she avoids resolutions and easy endings focusing instead on the small hard won victories that each woman experiences in her life and in her love of those around her The Sky Is Shooting Blue Arrows Glenna Luschei, 2014-09 Glenna Luschei's poems take her and her readers around the world including to Tunisia and Colombia but in the end they return to center on the American West where her heart lies Celebrating life travel aging and nature this new book shines with Luschei's view of the world Angels of the Americlypse: An Anthology of New Latin@ Writing Carmen Giménez Smith, John Chávez, 2014-06-18 The contemporary literary moment the anthology Angels of the Americlypse New Latin Writing attempts to capture is one defined by diversity various points of view literary styles and voices topical concerns and senses of self Not only have these writers widened the field they have forged new inquiry into their own experiences of the world as they live in it and understand it Writing in forms of lyric short short fiction nonfictional prose and in various degrees and forms of experimentation this collection represents one of the first efforts in years to include a critical introduction to the writers poetry or prose their literary work and their own aesthetic statements meant to express their distinct literary presence in American letters A Selected History of Her Heart Carole Oles, 2014-09 Travel blood and transgression are the materials that art shapes in these poems Carole Simmons Oles s work moves among physical spiritual and metaphorical frontiers where East meets West where relationships are forged and broken and where a woman can now process and reflect on the experiences that have shaped her life Say That Felecia Caton Garcia,2013-03-15 Caton Garcia s poems layer sound and image to offer a tangible point of access into the complex and often contradictory ideas contained within the work Love loss memory and the hidden lives of a range of speakers and characters become the interwoven themes of this book each presented in raw and unflinching narrative and metaphor Say That is divided into two sections The first presents the lived experience of the speakers while the second strips the story to unveil a dreamlife where memory and history haunt the lives they lead Flirt Noah Blaustein,2013-09-15 The narrator of these poems flirts constantly with women with physical danger with memory and grief with form and sound The poems are set in California and along the California border and a few poems reflect upon his wife s childhood in El Salvador Provided by publisher
