Clara Dos Anjos Clara Dos Anjos:

Clara dos Anjos Lima Barreto, 2020-01-27 O livro narra a paixão de uma mulata ingenua e de boa educação por um jovem rico e malandro

Lima Barreto Lamonte Aidoo, Daniel F. Silva, 2013-11-14 This edited volume is a collection of twelve interdisciplinary essays from various Brazilian literary scholars historians and anthropologists analyzing the work of 19th and 20th century Afro Brazilian writer Afonso Henriques de Lima Barreto This is the first collection to present a cohesive analysis of this writer's work in English It is an intellectually diverse collection of essays that recover Barreto's work and consider a wide range of topics including Barreto's treatment of race family class social and gender politics of postabolition Brazil neocolonialism the disjuncture between urban and suburban spaces and national identity politics

Racism in Novels Elaine Rocha, 2010-04-16 During the first half of the twentieth century both countries witnessed the advance of capitalism translated into an aggressive policy of development with the exploitation of minerals construction of railways and roads urbanization and industrialization Along with the economic development Brazilian and South African society tried to take control of their society meaning to control the population in order to maintain the status quo For that end racial definitions classifications theories and policies were fundamental As the features of South African politics and policies of racial segregation emerged with new colors for the world after the end of the Apartheid regime given the testimonies the released documents and the new analysis Brazilians have been pushed to face the problem of racial exclusion unmasking its image as a racial paradise under the lights of new studies as well Elaine Rocha uses novels published in both countries between 1912 and 1953 as a window from where one could see how cultural perceptions policies and of racial differentiation were reflected in the everyday life The analysis of the literary content plus the authors biographies political ideologies and the problems they were facing and interacting together with their intentions of affecting the lives of the readers with the tragedy they illustrated in their novels claiming for a change in the real world

Afro-Brazilians Niyi Afolabi, 2009 An interdisciplinary study on the myth of racial democracy in Brazil through the prism of producers of Afro Brazilian culture Brazil the most racially diverse Latin American country is also the most contradictory for centuries it has maintained fantasy as reality through the myth of racial democracy Enshrined in that mythology is the masking of exclusionism that strategically displaces and marginalizes Afro Brazilians from political power In this absorbing new study Niyi Afolabi exposes the tensions between the official position on racial harmony and the reality of marginalization experienced by Afro Brazilians by exploring Afro Brazilian cultural production as a considered response to this exclusion The author examines major contributions in music history literature film and popular culture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to reveal how each performance by an Afro Brazilian artist addresses issues of identity and racism through a variety of veils that entertain ridicule invoke provoke protest and demand change at the same time Raising cogent questions such as the vital role of Afro Brazilians in the making of Brazilian national identity the representation of Brazilian women as hapless exploited and abandoned the erosion of the influence of black movements due to fragmentation and internal disharmony and the portrayal of Afro Brazilians on the national screen as domestics Afolabi provides insightful nuanced analyses that tease out the complexities of the dilemma in their appropriate historical political and social contexts Niyi Afolabi teaches Luso Brazilian Yoruba and African Diaspora studies in the Department of Spanish and Portuguese as well as the John L Warfield Center for African and African American Studies at the University of Texas at Austin

EccentriCities: Writing in the margins of Modernism Sharon Lubkemann Allen, 2015-11-01 An innovative interdisciplinary incisive scholarly study remapping and redefining domains and dynamics of modernism EccentriCities Writing in the margins of modernism critically considers how geo historically distant and disparate urban sites concentrating Russian and Luso Brazilian cultural dialogue and definition give rise to peculiarly parallel anachronistic and alternative fictional forms While comparatively reframing these literary traditions through an extensive survey of Russian and Brazilian literature cartography urban design and development foregrounding innovative close readings of works by Gogol Dostoevsky Bely Almeida Machado de Assis Lima Barreto M rio de Andrade the book also redefines new constellations eccentric concentric ex centric for understanding geo cultural and generic dimensions of modernist and post modern literature and theory

Images of Power Jens Andermann, William Rowe, 2006-09-01 In Latin America where even today writing has remained a restricted form of expression the task of generating consent and imposing the emergent nation state as the exclusive form of the political was largely conferred to the image Furthermore at the moment of its historical demise the new postmodern forms of sovereignty appear to rely even more heavily on visual discourses of power However a critique of the iconography of the modern state form has been missing This volume is the first concerted attempt by cultural historical and visual scholars to address the political dimension of visual culture in Latin America in a comparative perspective spanning various regions and historical stages The case studies are divided into four sections analysing the formation of a public sphere the visual politics of avant garde art the impact of mass society on political iconography and the consolidation and crisis of territory as a key icon of the state

The Cultural Life of the Automobile Guillermo Giucci, 2012-05-24 From its invention in Europe at the end of the nineteenth century the automobile crisscrossed the world completely took over the cities and became a feature of daily life Considered basic to the American lifestyle the car reflected individualism pragmatism comfort and above all modernity In Latin America it served as a symbol of distinction similar to jewelry or fine clothing In The Cultural Life of the Automobile Guillermo Giucci focuses on the automobile as an instrument of social change through its kinetic modernity and as an embodiment of the tremendous social impact of technology on cultural life Material culture how certain objects generate a wide array of cultural responses has been the focus of much scholarly discussion in recent years The automobile wrought major changes and inspired images in language literature and popular culture Focusing primarily on Latin America but also covering the United States Europe Asia and Africa Giucci examines how the automobile was variously adapted by different cultures and how its use shaped and changed social and economic relationships within them At the same time he shows how the automobilization of society became an essential support for the development of modern individualism and the automobile its clearest material manifestation Literatura afro-brasileira: abordagens na sala de aula Eduardo de Assis Duarte,2020-11-19

Professores de Ensino Fundamental e Ensino Médio de todo o território nacional sobretudo os de Literatura História e Artes bem como todos os pesquisadores profissionais e cidadãos que buscam a implementação da Lei Brasileira 10 639 2003 encontrar o em Literatura afro brasileira abordagens na sala de aula um socorro desejado subsídios para dinamizar projetos e propostas produtivas na interlocução com estudantes e grupos sociais diversos rumo valorização da História e da cultura dos afrodescendentes e conquista da positividade em sua autoestima The Individual, Society, and Nature in the Novels of Lima Barreto Robert Deupree Herron,1968 Literary Passion, Ideological Commitment Dawn Duke,2008 This study examines Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian women writers as well as analysing the roles of women of African descent in Cuban and Brazilian literature Initially literary imagination locked women into circumscribed roles a result of hierarchies embedded in slavery and colonialism and sustained by hierarchical theories on race and gender The discussion illustrates how these negative aspects have influenced the mainstream literary imagination that contrasts with the self portrayals created by women writers themselves Even as there continues to be disadvantageous constructions there is no doubt that a modification has occurred over time in images representation and articulation It is a change directly associated with the instances when women themselves are the writers The historiographic image of the Afro Cuban and Afro Brazilian woman as a written object is ideologically replaced by a vision of her as a writing subject It is here that the vision of a creative multifaceted and diversified literature becomes important
