The Theory and Practice of Creative Coaching Arthur Turner, 2023-07-04

The Theory and Practice of Creative Coaching has been long in development and is not meant as an end view of creativity in this field. It is however a stimulating collection of ideas with detailed views from both practice and education that seeks to provide stimulus to trainee coaches as well as those whose practice is well established. With topics as wide ranging as walking to line drawing, this book seeks to change the practice of practitioners new and old and helps to articulate the ways in which David Clutterbuck has called for a move from the use of models towards mastery by embracing new ways of working with the clients of coaching. With a wide ranging scope, examples, ideas, and a strong link to academic understanding, this book will provide a stimulus to the coaches, supervisors, and educationalists to open their eyes to alternative ways of practicing their craft.

Coaching and Mentoring

Simon Western, 2012-07-18
Coaching and Mentoring: A Critical Text is a unique contribution to the field. It traces coaching influences back to pre-modern times, showing connections with soul healers of the past, taking a journey through modernity to post-modernity, and making links that help us better understand coaching today. Positioning coaching as working between the wounded self of therapeutic culture and the celebrated self of the human potential movement, it reveals four discourses that underpin contemporary coaching practice: 1. The Soul Guide Coach, coaching the inner self, focusing on values, authenticity, and identity; 2. The Psy Coach, coaching the outer self using psychological techniques to focus on personal performance and how we relate to others; 3. The Managerial Coach, coaching the role self, focusing on work task output and productivity; 4. The Network Coach, coaching the networked self, focusing on the wider networks in which we live and work. This vital new book brings a fresh and critical perspective on coaching and mentoring, challenging its taken-for-granted assumptions and narratives. It is written by a practitioner-scholar and develops an exciting vision for coaching today. Key features: Accounts for the diverse influences on contemporary coaching practice; Reveals how coaching is the new post-modern confessional; Develops a meta-theory of coaching that acts as a baseline for future developments; Offers frames of thinking to guide coaching and mentoring practitioners and educators.
