

The background of the cover is a collage of detailed anatomical illustrations in a light blue-grey color. These include a cross-section of a canine skull at the top left, a heart with major vessels on the left, a detailed view of a tooth and its root canal system in the center, and various other structures like a cross-section of a long bone, a joint, and internal organs like the lungs and stomach scattered throughout. The overall style is that of a scientific or medical textbook.
