Colonialism and Communalism M. Christhu Doss,2024-04-09 Christhu Doss examines how the colonial construct of communalism through the fault lines of the supposed religious neutrality the hunger for the bread of life the establishment of exclusive village settlements for the proselytes the rhetoric of Victorian morality the booby traps of modernity and the subversion of Indian cultural heritage resulted in a radical reorientation of religious allegiance that eventually created a perpetual detachment between proselytes and the others Exploring the trajectories of communalism Doss demonstrates how the multicultural Indian society known widely for its composite culture and secular convictions were categorized compartmentalized and communalized by the racialized religious pretensions A vital read for historians political scientists sociologists anthropologists and all those who are interested in religions cultures identity politics and decolonization in modern India
