Henry Corbin's discovery in an Istanbul library of the manuscript of a Persian translation of and commentary on Avicenna's Hayy ibn Yaqzan, written in Arabic, led him to an analysis of three of Avicenna's mystical recitals. These form an initiatory cycle leading the adept along the path of spiritual progress. In Part I, Corbin summarizes the great themes that show the philosophical situation of Avicennan man in the cosmos and presents translations of these three great Avicennan recitals. Part II is a complete translation with notes of the Persian commentary. Clarke, 2013-11-12 The journey is fraught with many dangers; the chances of success are slim. But the servants of the Earth spirit know that they are the only hope for the planets' ascension. To succeed, they must find the sacred Golden Spiral and the Earth's light codes before the scheming Destroyer does. The quest will take them to the spiritual dimensions of other worlds aboard a soul ship called Auroras, chartered by High Command. The servants come from all different walks of life. They have been visited by the celestial spirits of their families' spiritual DNA in preparation for the task ahead. The group must travel to the Spiritual Emperors' palace and then on to Warrior Mountain, where the supreme Shakti Angel guards the sacred gemstone known as the Will of Fire. Back on Earth, the clock is ticking. The world's portals have been shut down by terrorists, leaving soul ships backed up with their cargo. Meanwhile, Earth's precious resources of love, which it sells on the intergalactic markets and relies on for trade and security, have been suspended. Only the team aboard the Auroras can restore balance to the world and
