Late Medieval Italian Art and Its Contexts Joanna Cannon, 2022 Joanna Cannon's scholarship and teaching have helped shape the historical study of thirteenth and fourteenth century Italian art this essay collection by her former students is a tribute to her work The essays collected here form a tribute to Joanna Cannon whose scholarship and teaching have done so much to shape the historical study of thirteenth and fourteenth century Italian art Her teaching lies at the heart of this book as its chapters are all written by those who gained their doctorates under her supervision The reach of her interests and expertise is also reflected in its range of subjects The book is unified by its concentration on Italian art history and material culture spanning the thirteenth to the fifteenth centuries but within that scope the individual essays focus on an impressive variety of subjects across many media including panel painting wall painting architecture sculpture metalwork manuscripts and gilded glass Ranging across Italy from Bologna to Siena to Assisi to Florence they address key themes in the field such as artistic patronage sainthood and sanctity the visual culture of the mendicant orders devotional practice and civic religion Some essays bring fresh approaches to familiar material Ambrogio Lorenzetti's Saint Nicholas panels the frescoes in Siena's Palazzo Pubblico Simone Martini's Holy Family while others illuminate objects and images that are less well known the central panel of the Santa Chiara triptych in Trieste and the statue of Saint Francis in San Francesco in Siena As a collection they combine to make an important contribution to the study of Early Italian art seeking thereby to echo the extraordinary contribution of Joanna Cannon's own work to that field

Foreign Currency Volatility and the Market for French Modernist Art David Challis, 2021-08-04 Foreign Currency Volatility and the Market for French Modernist Art examines how the collapse of the French franc in the decades following the First World War activated powerful push and pull economic forces that compelled French art collectors to monetise their collections while simultaneously elevating the purchasing power of international art collectors These factors are shown to have played a significant and previously under recognised role in the large scale translocation of French modernist art that radically accelerated its commercial and critical reception across the globe and positioned it at the apex of the newly established hierarchy of modern art
