

A Guide to Celebrate Freedom Week

and Other Federal and State Mandated Observances

1. The History and Text of Constitution Day and Celebrate Freedom Week

In compliance with federal statute, Constitution Day is observed each year on September 17 as a commemoration of the signing of the U.S. Constitution on September 17, 1787.

This practice originated in 1940, when Congress passed a joint resolution requesting the President to issue annually a proclamation to deem the third Sunday in May for public acknowledgment of those who had achieved American citizenship. This was designated as "I Am An American Day." This observance became known as "Citizenship Day."

In 1952 Congress changed the date of observance to September 17 to coincide with the day the Constitution was ratified and urged educational leaders to make plans for observance of that day, yet the date remained about a commemoration of citizenship and was still designated as "Citizenship Day."

In 2004 Congress changed the title of the day to "Constitution Day and Citizenship Day." Congress also added new requirements for observance of the day. One was for the head of every federal agency to provide employees with training materials related to the Constitution and the other was to require that schools receiving federal funding hold programs for students on September 17th. This has now come to be known as "Constitution Day."

In 2001, the Texas Legislature mandated that social studies classrooms observe Celebrate Freedom Week during the week of September 17 by passing legislation that reads:

(A) Each social studies class shall include, during Celebrate Freedom Week as provided under the TEC, §29.907, or during another full school week as determined by the board of trustees of a school district, appropriate instruction concerning the intent, meaning, and importance of the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution, including the Bill of Rights, in their historical contexts. The study of the Declaration of Independence must include the study of the relationship of the ideas expressed in that document to subsequent American history, including the relationship of its ideas to the rich diversity of our people as a nation of immigrants, the American Revolution, the formulation of the U.S. Constitution, and the abolitionist movement, which led to the Emancipation Proclamation and the women's suffrage movement.

(B) Each school district shall require that, during Celebrate Freedom Week or other week of instruction prescribed under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph, students in Grades 3-12 study and recite the following text: "We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness--That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed."
