Counting On Kindness Wendy Lustbader, 2010-05-11 Seattle mental health counselor Lustbader here compells attention to and sympathy for those who must rely on caregivers for their needs Stories are related by patients themselves From incapacitated men and women we learn of the humiliations caused by the loss of autonomy of the frustrations at not being able to manage on one s own Accounts from widely different sorts of patients and those who begrudgingly or willingly see to their care provide graphic lessons in sensitivity A Dignified Life Virginia Bell, David Troxel, 2002 More than 5 million Americans are currently living with Alzheimer s disease or a related form of dementia By the year 2030 experts estimate that as many as 66 million people around the world will be faced with this life altering disease Unfortunately these staggering statistics impact millions of caregivers too Compared with all types of caregivers those who assist someone with dementia experience the highest levels of burnout depression poor health and premature death A Dignified Life Revised and Expanded offers hope and help with a proven approach Ten years ago the first edition of A Dignified Life changed the way the caregiving community approached Alzheimer s disease by showing caregivers how to act as a Best Friend to the person finding positive ways to interact even as mental abilities declined Firmly grounded in the latest knowledge about the progression and treatment of dementia this expanded edition offers a wealth of immediately usable tips and new problem solving advice It incorporates practical ideas for therapeutic activities including the latest brain fitness exercises stimulate the brain while adding structure meaning and context to daily routines With new stories and examples as well as an updated resources section A Dignified Life Revised and Expanded gives caregivers the support and advice they need to be successful and inspired in their demanding roles While medical treatment of the disease hasn t changed in the past ten years our understanding and awareness of treating people in a more caring way has changed substantially With no cure on the immediate horizon respectful care by effective and compassionate care partners is the only real treatment available to people with dementia The Best Friends tm Approach is successful because it sustains people s connection to their world their loved ones and themselves It s a universal program which has been embraced by professional and family caregivers throughout the United States Europe Asia the Middle East and South America In its revised form A Dignified Life offers caregivers an antidote to the burnout and frustration that often accompanies the role of caring for a person with Alzheimer s and dementia Rather than struggling through a series of frustrations and failures A Dignified Life shows the new generation care partners how to bring dignity meaning and peace of mind to the lives of both those who have Alzheimer s and dementia and those who care for them Caring for You, Caring for Me David H. Haigler, Kathryn B. Mims, Jack A. Nottingham, 1998 Caring for persons with chronic illnesses or disabilities is a rewarding endeavor but it often places extreme demands on those providing care Caregivers need both education and support to understand their caregiving roles and to cope with the difficult situations they face All too often there is a chasm between professionals who are part of the formal caregiving system and family members friends and neighbors who provide daily care The Caring for You Caring for Me education and support program is a valuable tool for use in providing caregivers with education and support The program is designed to bring formal professional and informal lay family caregivers together to gain a better understanding of each other s perspectives on what it means to be a caregiver with the hope that in the process both will learn to do it better The program is based on caregiving research and the expertise of frontline caregivers The Leader s Guide contains everything needed to conduct a ten hour education and support program for caregivers informational content layouts for overhead transparencies and suggested group activities The companion Participant s Manual supports the presentation providing a workbook for class activities a suggested reading list and a compendium of national sources of help for caregivers Caring for You Caring for Me was developed by the Rosalynn Carter Institute under the guidance of the West Central Georgia Caregivers Network CARE NET The Rosalynn Carter Institute was established in 1987 Its mission is to understand the process of caregiving and discover new ways to benefit both formal and informal caregivers The Institute supports the premise that caregivers and care receivers can be served most effectively through the collaborative efforts of formal and informal caregivers academicians public and private services and organizations representing caregivers and recipients of care
