alemana La responsabilidad penal de las personas jurídicas por los delitos cometidos por sus integrantes: la controvertida naturaleza jurídica del sistema de atribución y de exención de responsabilidad Menéndez Conca, Lucas Gabriel, 2024-09-18 El reconocimiento de la responsabilidad penal de las personas jurídicas en la legislación española ha significado un cambio de paradigma a la hora de establecer los presupuestos para la responsabilidad penal. Porque si hasta entonces dichos presupuestos giraban en torno a las capacidades y circunstancias de la persona física, ahora que podrá ser objeto de reproche penal la nueva referencia a los entes corporativos necesariamente tiene que influir en la determinación de tales presupuestos en tanto que las características y especificidades propias de las personas jurídicas difieren sustancialmente de las de las personas físicas. En lo que tienen en común como personas tan solo significa que se les puede atribuir un haz de derechos y de deberes y entre estos últimos los de poder ser sujeto de responsabilidad de la que poder deducir consecuencias jurídicas en forma de privaciones, restricciones o limitaciones de derechos. De ahí que se haya construido todo un sistema de atribución de responsabilidad penal propia de la persona jurídica jugando con las categorías de la teoría del delito para adaptarlas a las características intrínsecas de los entes colectivos. Así se han denominado a los equivalentes funcionales que dotan de contenido propio a la responsabilidad penal corporativa: ausencia de medidas de control, defecto de organización o falta de una cultura de cumplimiento que aparecen como los elementos sobre los que pivota el delito corporativo: la autoría del mismo y su correlativa responsabilidad penal singular.
