Catch The Age Wave A Handbook For Effective Ministry With Senior Adults:

Catch the Age Wave Win Arn, Charles Arn, 1993 It is time to reexamine our ideas of senior adult ministry Comfortable assumptions and outdated programs are being challenged in a time when an increasing number of seniors do not regularly attend church Authors Win and Charles Arn have updated and supplemented their classic book Catch the Age Wave in an effort to provide ideas examples and advice for starting and maintaining a senior adult program In addition they have added practical program ideas to use in any local church setting

Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries

Aging, Death, and the Quest for Immortality C. Ben Mitchell, Robert David Orr, Susan A. Salladay, 2004 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable Aging is a fact of life and issues surrounding it are hot There are currently 35 million Americans over the age of sixty five more than ever This demographic shift is noteworthy not only because the ranks of the elderly will continue to swell in coming years but also because it is taking place in what the editors of this book call an ageist society one that increasingly loathes every facet of aging Indeed the ethical issues associated with aging are among the thorniest in medicine and public policy today Aging Death and the Quest for Immortality is a timely volume by physicians healthcare professionals pastors and ethicists who explore the experiences dilemmas and possibilities associated with aging The book opens by offering three distinct perspectives on aging this section includes practical suggestions for dealing with retirement disability healing and death Several contributors then analyze controversial ethical issues raised by aging and health care including medical decision making the moral standing of patients with dementia health care rationing and assisted suicide A third group of essays applies a theology of care to ministry to and through older adults the counseling of seniors and the application of palliative care The book closes by discussing some of the emerging technologies and interest groups aimed at achieving immortality also asking appropriately what insights the Christian faith brings to the discussion Reflecting much wisdom and sensitivity this book will give welcome help to care providers and to those who are themselves in the later stages of life Contributors R Geoffrey Brown Jackie Cameron William P Cheshire Jr John Dunlop Robert W Evans Stephen P Greggo Vernon Grounds John F Kilner C Ben Mitchell Robert D Orr Stephen G Post Susan A Salladay Linda L Treloar Gregory Waybright Don't Have a Messed-Up Sunday School or Church School Dr. Oneal C. Sandidge, 2004-01-09 This book is like no other book because it is the only known book to provide the ABCs for organizing or reorganizing the Sunday school or church school The book is also loaded with suggestive forms to help any leader to construct his or her own forms for Sunday school or church school administration This book reminds the prospective teacher the current teacher the VBS coordinator training administrators and the support leader and workers of their responsibilities Any church pastor superintendent church leader professor of Christian education or director of Christian education will find this book as a valuable tool in Christian education Aging Matters R. Paul Stevens, 2016 Academy of Parish Clergy's Top Ten Books for Parish Ministry Vocational discernment says R Paul Stevens is a lifelong process one that takes on even more significance in later life In this book Stevens argues that our calling does not end with formal retirement to the contrary we do well to keep on working if possible till life's end Stevens delves into matters of calling spirituality and legacy in retirement showing that we must continue to discern our vocation as we grow older in order to remain meaningfully engaged for the rest of our lives He reframes retirement as a time of continued calling and productivity and points to biblical wisdom that can help us redefine aging as an extraordinarily fruitful season of life

Growing Older, Thinking Younger Keith A. Haemmelmann, 2012-11-01 Baby Boomers are maturing more Boomer than baby and this generation redefines what it means to age gracefully Growing Older Thinking Younger Ministry to Boomers helps church leaders to define this generation within the life of their church community Discover what successful ministry with aging members of your congregation looks like Clergy will learn how the church can reach out to this large segment and adapt to their needs as they move into retirement Haemmelmann reveals to readers what boomers look like what is important to them and how church fits into their everyday lives He illustrates for readers how to propel your ministries with older adults forward as they enter their golden years Astoundingly Joyful, Amazingly Simple Timothy D. White, 2012-08-30 The meta church is a group of culturally varied congregations combined together as one family with one dream that can only be fulfilled by our differences combined together as a fulfillment of the priestly prayer of Jesus Christ If you're looking for the hard science of what it takes to build a thriving church look no further than Dr White's Astoundingly
