Radano, 2012-08-22 Modern ecumenism often traces its roots back to the 1910 World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh This book brings readers up to date on one hundred years of global dialogue between and among many different church traditions including Anglican Lutheran Methodist Roman Catholic Pentecostal Evangelical Orthodox Baptist Disciples of Christ Oriental Orthodox and more Eighteen essays by authors representing a wide spectrum of denominational interests outline the achievements of this movement toward unity The first part of the volume focuses on multilateral dialogues and the search for and progress toward common ground The second part describes the multiple bilateral discussions and their results At once a celebration a record an analysis an encouragement this volume will interest all those who wish to understand the history the issues and the accomplishments of ecumenical conversations Ecumenical Perspectives Five Hundred Years After Luther's Reformation Gerard Mannion, Dennis M. Doyle, Theodore G. Dedon, 2021-05-04 This book offers ecumenical essays that focus on Reformation Christianity and on current Lutheran Catholic understandings and relationships It addresses important issues including the meaning of the Reformation the reception of Luther in Germany and beyond contemporary ecumenical dialogues and pathways to the future There is also some inclusion of Jewish and Orthodox traditions as well as attention to global issues Taken as a whole the primary method of this book is theology informed by history hermeneutics ethics and social theory Within the structure of the book can be found the classic hermeneutical circle What was the meaning of the Reformation for Luther in his own time What are various ways in which Luther and the Reformation have been interpreted in history How does knowledge of these things help us today to understand the Reformation and to move forward Ecumenism: A Guide for the Perplexed R. David Nelson, Charles Raith II, 2017-07-27

Ecumenism A Guide for the Perplexed is a comprehensive introduction to the methods achievements and future prospects of the modern ecumenical movement The authors begin the volume by charting out a serviceable definition of ecumenism a term that has long been a source of confusion for students of theology and church history They review the chronology of the modern ecumenical movement and highlight the major events figures accomplishments and impasses This historical survey is followed by critical examinations of three significant challenges for contemporary ecumenical theology and practice Along the way the authors provide commentary upon the difficulties and prospects that the ecumenical movement might anticipate as it enters this new millennium

Essays in Ecumenical Theology I Ivana Noble, 2018-11-26 In the first volume of Essays in Ecumenical Theology Ivana Noble depicts differences between what she calls a sectarian outlook and one which engages in the search for common roots dialogical relationships and shared mission in a world that has largely become post Christian but often also post secular Drawing on both Western and Orthodox scholarship and expressing her own positions Noble sketches what ecumenical theology is how it is linked to spirituality the methods it uses how it developed during the twentieth century and the challenges it faces Specific studies deal with controversial interpretations of Jan Hus Catholic Modernism the problematic heritage of the totalitarian regimes and responses to the current humanitarian crisis

The Oxford Handbook of Ecumenical Studies Geoffrey Wainwright, Paul McPartlan, 2021 Provides a rich source of information and reflection on many aspects of ecumenism from 50 expert contributors of many nationalities and traditions Offers a global perspective showing how ecumenism is a feature of the Church in all parts of the world with different geographical areas specifically considered in chapters focusing on Europe the Middle East Africa Asia and more Offers an invaluable guide to one of the most important Christian activities of today work for unity and reconciliation within the Church itself and as a witness in the world at large Book jacket

Celebrating a Century of Ecumenism John A. Radano, 2011

The Reception of Vatican II Matthew L. Lamb, Matthew Levering, 2017 A sequel to Vatican II Renewal within Tradition OUP 2008 The Reception of Vatican II shows how the Council has been received and interpreted over the course of the more than fifty years since it concluded The meaning of the Second Vatican Council has been fiercely contested since before it was even over and since its completion has seen a battle for the soul of the Church waged through the interpretation of Council documents Each essay in this volume looks at how one of those documents has been interpreted in the post Vatican II era and points the way forward for its future reception

Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Gathered in my Name William T. Cavanaugh, 2020-12-28 This volume differs from many quincentennial discussions of the Protestant Reformation and ecumenical scholarship more generally in that it shifts the focus from Europe and the West to the global South where ecumenism s promises and challenges are quite different In postcolonial and post missionary Africa the churches continue to expand competition among denominations is lively and Christian rivalry with Islam is often a reality In Latin America Protestants have severely eroded the Catholic Church s hegemony originally forged in the zeal of the Counter Reformation to combat the perceived errors of Luther and Calvin In India the Christian churches are a tiny beleaguered minority facing an increasingly militant Hindu nationalism These essays pay close attention to the different contexts of intra Christian relationships worldwide the actual situation on the ground If ecumenism will succeed it cannot be simply a matter of experts at a conference attempting to agree about doctrines abstracted from the contexts in which they were forged the contexts in which doctrinal disagreements caused ecclesial ruptures or the contexts in which Christians continue to live out our divided existence This volume attempts to be sensitive to the lived experience of divided Christians in whatever part of the world they find themselves
