Creating the Academic Commons Thomas H. P. Gould, 2011 Creating the Academic Commons Thomas H. P. Gould, 2011-06-14 Today's library is still at the heart of all university activities helping students and faculty become better learners teachers and researchers In recent years there has emerged the formalizing of one or more of these activities into an Academic Commons These centers of information have been labeled variously but they all share a commonality the empowerment of students and teachers In Creating the Academic Commons Guidelines for Learning Teaching and Research Thomas Gould gives a detailed outline of the various roles and activities that take place in commons located within the administrative umbrella of the library Gould provides a roadmap for libraries seeking to establish their own Academic Commons complete with suggestions regarding physical structure and software hardware options And to ensure new ideas are examined evaluated and adopted broadly Gould shows how the Millennial Librarian can be at the center of this evolutionary library Including information regarding the latest technological advances this book will be an invaluable guide for librarians Writing Centers and Learning Commons Steven J. Corbett, Teagan E. Decker, Maria L. Soriano Young, 2023-04-01 Writing Centers and Learning Commons presents program administrators directors staff and tutors with theoretical rationales experiential journeys and go to practical designs and strategies for the many questions involved when writing centers find themselves operating in shared environments The chapters comprehensively examine the ways writing centers make the most of sharing common ground Directors coordinators administrators and stakeholders draw on past and present attention to writing center studies to help shape the future of the learning commons and narrate their substantial collective experience with collaborative efforts to stay centered while empowering colleagues and student writers at their institutions The contributors explore what is gained and lost by affiliating writing centers with learning commons how to create sound pedagogical foundations that include writing center philosophies how writing center practices evolved or have been altered by learning center affiliations and more Writing Centers and Learning Commons is for all stakeholders of writing in and across campuses collaborating on by choice or edict or wishing to explore the possibilities of a learning commons enterprise Contributors Alice Batt Cassandra Book Charles A. Braman Elizabeth Busekrus Blackmon Virginia Crank Celeste Del Russo Patricia Egbert Christopher Giroux Alexis Hart Suzanne Julian Kristen Miller Robby Nadler Michele Ostrow Helen Raica Klotz Kathleen Richards Robyn Rohde Nathalie Singh Corcoran David Stock Do We Still Need Peer Review? Thomas H. P. Gould, 2012-11-20 The current peer review process is broken and unless changes are made it will soon die In Do We Still Need Peer Review author Thomas H. P. Gould examines the evolution of peer review from the earliest attempts by the Church to evaluate scholarly works to the creation of academic peer review and finally to the current status of the process Gould argues that without an immediate effort by scholars to institute reform the future of peer review may cease to exist As new technology provides authors with a direct unsupervised route to publication the peer review situation is nearing a tipping point beyond which the nature of academic research will be profoundly altered This book proposes that rather than tossing out peer review altogether the process can be saved and made stronger offering suggestions on how to do just that
