Constructing Cassandra Reframing Intelligence Failure At The Cia 1947 2001:

Constructing Cassandra Milo Jones, Philippe Silberzahn, 2013-08-21 Constructing Cassandra analyzes the intelligence failures at the CIA that resulted in four key strategic surprises experienced by the US the Cuban Missile Crisis in 1962 the Iranian revolution of 1978 the collapse of the USSR in 1991 and the 9 11 terrorist attacks surprises still play out today in U S policy Although there has been no shortage of studies exploring how intelligence failures can happen none of them have been able to provide a unified understanding of the phenomenon To correct that omission this book brings culture and identity to the foreground to present a unified model of strategic surprise one that focuses on the internal make up the CIA and takes seriously those Cassandras who offered warnings but were ignored This systematic exploration of the sources of the CIA s intelligence failures points to ways to prevent future strategic surprises Rebel Ideas Matthew Syed, 2025-10-16 Rebel Ideas will strengthen any kind of team while including advice on how as individuals we can embrace the potential of an outsider mind set as our greatest asset Ideas are everywhere but those with the greatest problem solving business transforming and life changing potential are often hard to identify Even when we recognize good ideas applying them to everyday obstacles whether in the workplace our homes or our civic institutions can seem insurmountable According to Matthew Syed it doesn t have to be this way In Rebel Ideas Syed argues that our brainpower as individuals isn t enough To tackle problems from climate change to economic decline we ll need to employ the power of cognitive diversity Drawing on psychology genetics and beyond Syed uses real world scenarios including the failings of the CIA before 9 11 and a communication disaster at the peak of Mount Everest to introduce us to the true power of thinking differently Studies in Intelligence , 2017 The Plot to Seize Russia Martin Armstrong, 2023-06-23 Take care of Russia Boris Yeltsin said as he departed his presidency in August 1999 These words were directed at current Russian president Vladimir Putin Yeltsin specifically picked Putin as his predecessor to prevent the takeover of Russia So who was Yeltsin warning against Newly declassified documents from the Clinton Administration prove that there was a plot to rig the Russian election of 2000 These never before seen documents confirm numerous attempts to implement pro Western policies using the Russian oligarchy headed by Boris Berezovsky On the other side were the communists who desired a return to the glory days of the Soviet Union As one of the largest international hedge fund managers author Martin Armstrong found himself in the middle of perhaps the greatest espionage or attempt at a regime change for Russia in modern history The Plot to Seize Russia pulls back the curtain to expose the most extraordinary attempt to seize power in modern history but with the pen rather than armies These declassified documents reveal a plot that has altered our thinking about the relations between the United States and Russia The thirst for power comes seething through every line of these papers that alter our perception of reality change the course of history and now threaten us with World War III Roots of Counterterrorism Constant Willem Hijzen, 2024-10-22 Following the 9 11 terrorist attacks much of the counterterrorism literature has focused on costly and ineffective approaches losing sight of productive strategies from eras past Roots of Counterterrorism revives the narratives from the Dutch domestic security service Binnenlandse Veiligheidsdienst BVD from 1968-78 a period of turbulence that lasted until the Dutch regained political stability Using newly declassified primary sources Constant Willem Hijzen shows that a goal of large scale prevention was not as effective as focusing on suspected perpetrators of attacks The book introduces a new way of analyzing the dynamics of counterterrorism shedding light on contemporary wisdom from Dutch intelligence history

World War I and the Foundations of American Intelligence Mark Stout, 2023-11-16 Ask an American intelligence officer to tell you when the country started doing modern intelligence and you will probably hear something about the Office of Strategic Services in World War II or the National Security Act of 1947 and the formation of the Central Intelligence Agency What you almost certainly will not hear is anything about World War I In World War I and the Foundations of American Intelligence Mark Stout establishes that in fact World War I led to the realization that intelligence was indispensable in both wartime and peacetime After a lengthy gestation that started in the late nineteenth century modern American intelligence emerged during World War I laying the foundations for the establishment of a self-conscious profession of intelligence Virtually everything that followed was maturation reorganization reinvigoration or reinvention World War I ushered in a period of rapid changes Never again would the War Department be without an intelligence component Never again would a senior American commander lead a force to war without intelligence personnel on their staff Never again would the United States government be without a signals intelligence agency or aerial reconnaissance capability Stout examines the breadth of American intelligence in the war not just in France not just at home but around the world and across the army navy and State Department and demonstrates how these far-flung efforts endured after the Armistice in 1918 For the first time there came to be a group of intelligence practitioners who viewed themselves as different from other soldiers sailors and diplomats Upon entering World War II the United States had a solid foundation from which to expand to meet the needs of another global hot war and the Cold War that followed

Gentry,Joseph S. Gordon,2019-03-01 John A Gentry and Joseph S Gordon update our understanding of strategic warning intelligence analysis for the twenty first century Strategic warning the process of long range analysis to alert senior leaders to trending threats and opportunities that require action is a critical intelligence function It also is frequently misunderstood and underappreciated Gentry and Gordon draw on both their practitioner and academic backgrounds to present a history of the strategic warning function in the US intelligence community In doing so they outline the capabilities of analytic methods explain why strategic warning analysis is so hard and discuss the special challenges strategic warning encounters from senior decision makers They also compare how strategic warning functions in other countries evaluate why the United States has in recent years emphasized current intelligence instead of strategic warning and recommend warning related structural and procedural improvements in the US intelligence community The authors examine historical case studies including postmortems of warning failures to provide examples of the analytic points they make Strategic Warning Intelligence will interest scholars and practitioners and will be an ideal teaching text for intermediate and advanced students      Perspectives on Military Intelligence from the First World War to Mali Floribert Baudet,Eleni Braat,Jeoffrey van Woensel,Aad Wever,2017-07-01 With a foreword by Michael Kowalski Chairman of the Netherlands Intelligence Studies Association Many intelligence practitioners feel that the statutory footing on which intelligence agencies have been placed forms an impediment to confronting unprecedented contemporary challenges On the basis of case studies spanning the period from the First World War to the present this book argues that while the intelligence community in the era of globalization has indeed come to face new and complex challenges that require adaptation operating in demanding and changing environments is not new at all This book questions the conventional wisdom of 9 11 or the end of the Cold War as caesurae It also argues that the ability to adapt innovate question and learn from past experience is crucial for the success of intelligence organizations rather than ever expanding funding Agencies ability to reflect adapt and learn from experience determines their subsequent capability to deliver One key development resulting from globalization is the marked increase in cooperation between intelligence agencies of different countries on the one hand and between investigative agencies and intelligence agencies on the other This has led to concerns over human rights and privacy and to increased calls for accountability and improved oversight as the increase in cooperation between organizations operating globally also provides scope for the circumvention of domestic restrictions This book proposes an instrument to assess the effectiveness of existing accountability arrangements and offers new insights into the role of military intelligence in a number of crises e g the 1962 Cold War confrontation over Western New Guinea and the functioning of intelligence in peacekeeping operations ranging from Srebrenica to Mali Thematically comprehensive it offers a mixture of historical legal operational and policy aspects analyzed through the lens of institutional learning bringing together academic and practitioners perspectives The focus lies not only on the familiar Anglo Saxon experience but also on cases from India the Netherlands South East Asia Bosnia Lebanon and Mali The book is aimed at both scholars and practitioners studying and or working in the field of civil and military intelligence and those involved in international relations and international humanitarian law human rights law It brings together contributions from authors who spoke at the Conference to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Dutch Military Intelligence and Security Service organized by the Netherlands Intelligence Studies Association NISA and from a number of authors who were specifically invited to participate About the editors Floribert Baudet is Associate Professor of Strategy at the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda Eleni Braat is Assistant Professor at the Department of History and Art History at Utrecht University Jeoffrey van Woensel is a military historian who works at the Veteraneninstituut in Doorn and Aad Wever is an independent scholar who formerly worked at Saxion University of Applied Sciences in Enschede and Ferris State University MI USA and who is now retired Specific to this book Offers a mixture of historical legal operational and policy aspects analyzed through the lens of institutional learning Brings together academic and practitioners perspectives Focusses not only on the familiar Anglo Saxon experience but also presents cases from India the Netherlands South East Asia Bosnia Lebanon and Mali
