Daddy's Journal: Recognizing God's Hand Chuck Cibes,2015-12-23 Chuck Cibes is a down to earth weaver of personal narrative The reader who does not know him will quickly feel as though he does Chuck writes with a transparency and a simplicity that makes one at home with his subjects whether that be harvesting Kansas wheat fields running TV cable in the Texas expanses navigating the labyrinthine medical world or walking through the jungle in Central America in the middle of the night and being surprised by a giant iguana even if one does not know them firsthand Chuck takes the reader into the deepest recesses of his soul revealing his personal struggles losses and triumphs in a way that makes the reader face his own problems with renewed faith in God and his blessings with renewed gratitude The reader will come away knowing from Chuck s experiences that ultimately all things do work together for the good of God s child and for God s glory even when he might not be able to see that truth in his present circumstances The reader will be wiping tears of sympathy one moment as Chuck relates the heartaches of watching a dear loved one slip away the victim of cancer and tears of laughter the next moment as he shares the humorous events of his multifaceted life s journey In the end the reader cannot doubt that faith and family have played pivotal roles in Chuck s life as they should for each of us Dennis L Peterson Independent writer historian
