Developing Nonprofit And Human Service Leaders Essential Knowledge And Skills:

Developing Nonprofit and Human Service Leaders Larry D. Watson, Richard A. Hoefer, 2013-10-21 Developing Nonprofit and Human Service Leaders comprehensively prepares students with the skills to successfully manage human service organizations. Authors Larry D. Watson and Richard Hoefer explore core managerial competencies tailored to the unique environment of these organizations, including administrative responsibilities, values, and ethics, organizational theories, leadership, boards of directors, fundraising, supervision, research, cultural consideration, and more. This essential text offers hands-on practice for the skills that future administrators will need to make a substantial impact in their organizations and communities.

The Evolving College Presidency: Emerging Trends, Issues, and Challenges Martin III, Quincy, Cooney, Matthew A., 2022-06-24 Incoming college presidents are entering the job at a time when the role is increasingly challenging as they are asked to do more, decide and act faster, create and maintain more relationships, and demonstrate successes while under an unrelenting microscope. The range of leadership skills and competencies surrounding the current college presidency requires well-prepared and well-informed college presidential aspirants. Research shows there is no formal training framework available in colleges to prepare successful candidates for the presidency. Consequently, most incoming college presidents have lamented being ill-prepared for the role. The Evolving College Presidency: Emerging Trends, Issues, and Challenges provides guidance and career trajectory advice for aspiring college presidents as they prepare to take on this challenging and dynamic role. The text also explores the emerging trends, issues, and challenges of the college presidency, including issues such as diversity and inclusion, funding, and fundraising, and political issues. Covering a range of critical topics such as student affairs and community relationships, this reference work is vital for higher education professionals, administrators, researchers, practitioners, scholars, academicians, instructors, and students.

Developing Human Service Leaders Deborah Harley-McClaskey, 2015-12-24 This empowering text for human services students covers the skills and behaviors essential for leaders to manage themselves, their teams, and the organization. Using a unique coaching voice, the book follows a Reflection, Diagnosis, Prescription approach for leadership development, with exercises built into the dialogue. The final chapter, Prognosis, offers a workbook-style exercise to help students make a personal change.

Nonprofit Management Elaine P. Congress, Allan Luks, Francis Petit, 2016-09-15 Nonprofit organizations are increasingly concerned with the need to demonstrate how social justice principles impact every aspect of their work This is the only textbook to explicitly integrate social justice principles into the management of a nonprofit organization. It provides students with the knowledge and skills required to integrate a social justice value system into their work as effective nonprofit leaders. Using practical tips and illustrative case examples, the text explains the structure and processes of nonprofit organizations with a particular emphasis on social justice themes. The book is edited by an interdisciplinary team of prominent leaders in business management and social service who together run the Fordham Center for Nonprofit Leaders. They have assembled a group of expert authors who provide extensive coverage of the nonprofit leadership field. The book discusses the history of the development of nonprofit management up to the present day. It addresses legal and ethical considerations, organizational planning and staff management, finance, public relations, fundraising, public advocacy and volunteerism, program design and grant development, governance and board development, developing an international nonprofit, information technology, career development and creating a nonprofit social entrepreneurship organization. Additional chapters address quality improvement, mentoring and proposal writing. Included are plentiful case studies and review questions in each chapter. The text is ideal for students and faculty in social service administration, human service leadership, social work management, public and community health, public administration and health care administration and management. Key Features: Comprises the only nonprofit management text to integrate social justice themes. Edited by an interdisciplinary group of authors representing the social service, social work management and nonprofit fields. Includes illustrative case studies and review questions in each chapter. Offers practical tips for integrating social justice agendas. Provides PowerPoint presentations for instructors.
