The New Development Economics Jomo K.S., Ben Fine, 2006 This volume provides a critique of the post Washington Consensus in neoliberal economics

SouthSouth Trade and Finance in the Twenty-First Century Omar Dahi, Firat Demir, 2016-10-10 This book is a contribution to the international trade and economic development literature and is based on a decade of joint research and collaboration on South South economic relations Given the increasing focus on the economic power of some developing countries for example the 2013 Human Development Report's Rise of the South it is particularly appropriate and timely NP

The book's findings are based on rigorous empirical examination of South South trade and finance and it provides an even handed assessment from the perspective of long term development goals rather than mainstream welfare approaches or ideological theoretical worldview NP This work directly engages with the new developmentalism literature that has challenged the neoliberal orthodoxy and its policy approach which focuses on liberalization privatization and deregulation It also engages with literature by examining whether the increase in South South trade facilitates or inhibits the possibilities for developmentalist economic policy in developing countries The book shows concrete and positive results from South South trade particularly related to industrial development and also documents how South South trade is dominated by large developing countries and that South South trade liberalization may be counterproductive The Palgrave Handbook of Development Economics Machiko Nissanke, José Antonio Ocampo, 2019-08-12 This Handbook responds to the needs and aspirations of current and future generations of development economists by providing critical reference material alongside or in relation to mainstream propositions Despite the potential of globalisation in accelerating growth and development in low and middle income countries through the spread of technology knowledge and information its current practice in many parts of the world has led to processes that are socially economically and politically and ecologically unsustainable It is critical for development economists to engage with the pivotal question of how to change the nature and course of globalisation to make it work for inclusive and sustainable development Applying a critical and pluralistic approach the chapters in this Handbook examine economics of development paths under globalisation focusing on sustainable development in social environmental institutional and political economy dimensions It aims at advancing the frontier of development economics in these key aspects and generating more refined policy perspectives It is critically reflective in examining effects of globalisation on development paths to date and in terms of methodological and analytical approaches as well as forward thinking in policy perspectives with a view to laying a foundation for sustainable development Global Labour in Distress, Volume II Pedro Goulart, Raul Ramos, Gianluca Ferrittu, 2023-01-01 This book the second of two volumes explores the transformations to the labour market observed since the official end of the Cold War in 1991 This period is defined by the retreat of the state and a move towards more market based economies followed by a State comeback with the Great Recession These bumpy decades for labour and changing labour policies are analysed thematically The second volume focuses on labour earnings and inequality underemployment in decent work and labour market policies This book aims to examine how labour institutions both in developed and developing countries have responded to the challenges faced over the last 30 years It will be relevant to students and researchers interested in labour economics political economy and development economics World Population and Human Capital in the Twenty-first Century Wolfgang Lutz, William P. Butz, Samir KC, 2017 Condensed into a detailed analysis and a selection of continent wide datasets this revised edition of World Population Human Capital in the Twenty First Century addresses the role of educational attainment in global population trends and models Presenting the full chapter text of the original edition alongside a concise selection of data it summarizes past trends in fertility mortality migration and education and examines relevant theories to identify key determining factors Deriving from a global survey of hundreds of experts and five expert meetings on as many continents World Population Human Capital in the Twenty First Century An Overview emphasizes alternative trends in human capital new ways of studying ageing and the quantification of alternative population and education pathways in the context of global sustainable development It is an ideal companion to the county specific online Wittgenstein Centre Data Explorer
