The Interactive Documentary in Canada Michael Brendan Baker,Jessica Mulvogue,2024-06-18 Interactive documentary emerged rapidly from a constellation of changing technologies and practices to much excitement yet its history is short and its future uncertain In the mid 2010s Canada was a world leader in the creation of i docs Less than a decade later technological obsolescence has rendered many of these celebrated projects inaccessible while rapid digital innovation continues to change the i doc form and its modes of experience The Interactive Documentary in Canada captures this transitional moment in documentary filmmaking and media production Bringing together a range of historical theoretical and critical approaches this collection examines the past and the imagined future of a nonfiction storytelling phenomenon that has Canadian institutions figures and works at its centre Embracing a polyphonic conception of interactive documentary the volume includes explorations of web based app based installation and virtual reality works that push the boundaries of what is understood as documentary cinema Leading documentary scholars and makers consider the historical and technological contexts of i doc production innovation and exhibition the political and pedagogical potential of the genre the ethics of the i doc experience and the format s future lifespan in the contemporary media landscape The Interactive Documentary in Canada establishes a place for the i doc in the history of Canadian film highlighting the genre s significant impact on the National Film Board of Canada and on contemporary global documentary media Importing Care, Faithful Service Stephen M. Cherry,2022-06-17 Every year thousands of foreign born Filipino and Indian nurses immigrate to the United States Despite being well trained and desperately needed they enter the country at a time not unlike the past when the

American social and political climate is once again increasingly unwelcoming to them as immigrants Drawing on rich ethnographic and survey data collected over a four year period this study explores the role Catholicism plays in shaping the professional and community lives of foreign born Filipino and Indian American nurses in the face of these challenges while working at a Veterans hospital Their stories provide unique insights into the often unseen roles race religion and gender play in the daily lives of new immigrants employed in American healthcare In many ways these nurses find themselves foreign in more ways than just their nativity Seeing nursing as a religious calling they care for their patients both at the hospital and in the wider community with a sense of divine purpose but must also confront the cultural tensions and disconnects between how they were raised and trained in another country and the legal separation of church and state How they cope with and engage these tensions and disconnects plays an important role in not only shaping how they see themselves as Catholic nurses but their place in the new American story
