Migration and the Crisis of the Modern Nation State? Frank Jacob, Adam Luedtke, 2018-01-15 The anthology explores the interrelationship between migration and a supposedly existent crisis of the modern nation state The argument of such a crisis is mainly used by the New Right to stimulate nationalist feelings and provoke hate and aggression We in contrast to this perception argue that from a historical and current perspective migration is not endangering the nation state but rather changing the idea of a nation itself by redefining it In historical as well as current case studies the authors determine the political dangers of right wing demagogues while emphasizing the chances immigration is offering the progress of the nation state While it will be discussed how nationalism is impacting on the perception of migration we also want to emphasize how it is perceived by the people in the specific regions which are either confronted with migration or those which are not The authors for the volume come from different fields namely history and political sciences and are consequently able to offer the reader a broad insight into the historical roots and the current consequences nationalism had or has on the perception and the local as well as global policies towards migration The analysis of particular immigrant groups e g North Koreans in post war Korea South Asians in the Emirates Middle Eastern refugees in Europe Hispanics in the United States as well as a close reading of crisis related media newspapers and other media in Europe and the US will all in all establish a broad perspective due to which the reader will be able to compare and connect the national events to a larger global picture Islamism and Cultural Expression in the Arab World Abir Hamdar, Lindsey Moore, 2015-04-10 Whereas most studies of Islamism focus on politics and religious ideology this book analyses the ways in which Islamism in the Arab world is defined reflected transmitted and contested in a variety of creative and other cultural forms It covers a range of contexts of production and reception from the early twentieth century to the present and with reference to cultural production in and or about Morocco Algeria Tunisia Egypt Yemen the Gulf Lebanon and Israel Palestine The material engaged with is produced in Arabic English and French and includes fiction autobiography feature films television series television reportage the press rap music and video games Throughout the book highlights the multiple forms and contested interpretations of Islamism in the Arab world exploring trends and tensions in the ways Islamism is represented to primarily Arab audiences and complicating simplistic perspectives on this phenomenon The book considers repeated and idiosyncratic themes modes of characterisation motifs structures of feeling and forms of engagement in the context of an ongoing struggle for symbolic power in the region After-Mission, Beyond Evangelicalism Najib George Awad, 2020-11-04 After Mission touches on on three questions The first question is about self perception and identity formation strategies and the various views that we have on the Protestants relation to their Arab Muslim Middle Eastern context This will furnish the basis for the ensuing parts as it will provide the study with coherent and analytical readings of the cultural situation and intellectual views of the Arab Eastern Protestants in their Sitz im Leben from the perspective of the hermeneutic tripod of identity othering relationality The second question about the theological dimension asks what kind of a theological discourse do the Protestants need to develop and how do they need to re form their own theological heritage in such a manner that will allow them to heal the historical enmity and suspicion towards them from the Eastern Orthodox Christian community in the region How should they re think their traditional view on theological subjects common to them and the Eastern Christian tradition Traditional Protestant attitudes towards Eastern Christianity which have been viewed through the lens of evangelicalism and mission have failed to grant the Protestants an influential and truly indigenous presence in the region and have led to them being constantly accused of being a foreign transplant and alien entity In the light of this it is clear that going beyond missiology and traditional evangelicalism demands re thinking certain mutually shared but contentious theological subjects from a new perspective with the focus on more constructive attempts to build fellowship through dialogue Finally the third question touches on the Protestants future in the Arab Muslim Middle East by viewing this inquiry from a broader perspective that is related to all the Middle Eastern Christian communities presence and role in the Muslim majority context It will discuss questions about the kind of presence and role that Christians Protestants included should hope to play in order to guarantee survival and a continuing presence in the region The question of identity formation and the managing of difference without trapping it in the mud of otherizing and self otherizing will also be tackled so that the theological dimension is integrated with the broader multifaceted contextual one Muslim Citizens
