Colonial and Postcolonial Literature Elleke Boehmer, 2005-10-06 Offers an introduction to the growth area of colonial and postcolonial writing in English This book combines a contextualising narrative situating key developments in imperial and postcolonial history with theoretical readings of key texts that illuminate important concepts and definitions including writing back and mimicry

Colonial and Postcolonial Literature Elleke Boehmer, 2005-10-06 Colonial and Postcolonial Literature is the leading critical overview of and historical introduction to colonial and postcolonial literary studies Highly praised from the time of its first publication for its lucidity breadth and insight the book has itself played a crucial part in founding and shaping this rapidly expanding field The author an internationally renowned postcolonial critic provides a broad contextualizing narrative about the evolution of colonial and postcolonial writing in English Illuminating close readings of texts by a wide variety of writers from Kipling and Conrad through to Kincaid from Ngugi to Noonuccal and Naipaul explicate key theoretical terms such as subaltern colonial resistance writing back and hybridity This revised edition includes new critiques of postcolonial women s writing an expanded and fully annotated bibliography and a new chapter and conclusion on postcolonialism exploring keynote debates in the field relating to sexuality transnationalism and local resistance

Colonial and Postcolonial Cyprus Daniele Nunziata, 2020-11-16 This book analyses colonial and postcolonial writing about Cyprus before and after its independence from the British Empire in 1960 These works are understood as transnational literatures in that they navigate the liminal and layered forms of colonialism which impede the freedom of the island including the residues of British imperialism the impact of Greek and Turkish nationalisms and the ethnolinguistic border between north and south This study puts pressure on the postcolonial discipline by evaluating the unique hegemonic relationship Cyprus has with three metropolitan centres not one The print languages associated with each centre English Greek and Turkish are complicit in neo colonial activity Contemporary Cypriot writers address this in order to resist sectarian division and grapple with their deferred postcoloniality

Postcolonial Literature Dave Gunning, 2013-09-05 Introduces an array of fiction and poetry examining how writers from Africa Australasia the Caribbean Canada Ireland and South Asia have engaged with the challenges that beset postcolonial societies Discusses many of the most studied works of postcolonial literature from Disgrace through Things Fall Apart to White Teeth

British Asian fiction Sara Upstone, 2013-07-19 This is the first text to focus solely on the writing of British writers of South Asian descent born or raised in Britain Exploring the unique contribution of these writers it positions their work within debates surrounding black British diasporic migrant and postcolonial literature in order to foreground both the continuities and tensions embedded in their relationship to such terms engaging in particular with the ways in which this new generation has been denied the right to a distinctive theoretical framework through absorption into pre existing frames of reference Focusing on the diversity of contemporary British Asian experience the book engages with themes including gender national and religious identity the reality of post 9 11 Britain the
