Dimensions Mohamed Chaouchi, 2015-12-07 The imagery of this collection varies from a silky pillow to a bullet hole inside a school's wall It depicts revolutionaries and lovers around the globe and highlights a freckle majestically placed under the most luscious lips This collection takes us from the kitchen to the office walls stopping for a nature hike and onto sleeping with a herd of wolves conspiring to overthrow a corrupted regime It is liberating and inquisitive Inside the cover young people hold white roses as they dance while birds denounce misery and witness the distribution of love The poems are reports from the field the emotional quest of someone trying to decipher relationships and bring us closer Mohamed Chaouchi opens a window onto a horizon bordering an ocean He is eager to share stories which are usually told at night when the silver moon looks its best and the naked lover is the warmest inside its nest
