Colour Bar The Triumph Of Seretse Khama And His Nation:

Colour Bar A. Susan Williams, 2006 London 1945 the heir to the largest tribe of Bechuanaland later Botswana arrives in Britain Seretse Khama an urbane 24 year old was welcomed into the elite world of Oxford But when he fell in love with Englishwoman Ruth Williams the full force of colonial power was brought to bear to prevent their marriage Colour Bar Susan Williams, 2007-06-07 Sir Seretse Khama the first President of Botswana and heir apparent to the kingship of the Bangwato people brought independence and great prosperity to his nation after colonial rule But for six long years from 1950 Seretse had been forced into exile in England banned from his own country His crime To fall in love and marry a young white English girl Ruth Williams Delving into newly released records Susan Williams tells Seretse and Ruth s story a shocking account of how the British Government conspired with apartheid South Africa to prevent the mixed race royal couple returning home But it is also an inspiring triumphant tale of hope courage and true love as with tenacity and great dignity Seretse and Ruth and the Bangwato people overcome prejudice in their fight for justice Churchill's Confidant Richard Steyn, 2018-02-01 Brought together first as enemies in the Anglo Boer War and later as allies in the First World War the remarkable and often touching friendship between Winston Churchill and Jan Smuts is a rich study in contrasts In youth they occupied very different worlds Churchill the rambunctious and thrusting young aristocrat Smuts the aesthetic philosophical Cape farm boy who would go on to Cambridge Both were men of exceptional talents and achievements and between them the pair had to grapple with some of the twentieth century s most intractable issues not least of which the task of restoring peace and prosperity to Europe after two of mankind s bloodiest wars Drawing on a maze of archival and secondary sources including letters telegrams and the voluminous books written about both men Richard Steyn presents a fascinating account of two remarkable men in war and peace one the leader of the Empire the other the leader of a small fractious member of that Empire who nevertheless rose to global prominence Hunting Justice Maria Sapignoli, 2018-02-15 This book presents a long term study of the activist campaign that contested the Botswana government s much publicized removal of the San and Bakgalagadi people from the Central Kalahari Game Reserve Sapignoli s multiple points of observation and analysis range from rural Botswana to the nation s High Court and a variety of United Nations agencies in their Headquarters focusing on rights claimants and officials from NGOs states and the United Nations as they acted on the grievances of those who had been displaced In offering a comprehensive discussion of the San people and their claims making through formal institutions this book maintains a consistent focus on the increased recourse to law and the everyday experience of those who are asserting their rights in response to the encroachments of the state and the opportunities inherent in new indigenous advocacy networks Zambia Andrew Sardanis, 2014-08-13 On 24 October 1964 the Republic of Zambia was formed replacing the territory which had formerly been known as Northern Rhodesia Fifty years on Andrew Sardanis provides a sympathetic but critical insider s account of Zambia from independence to the present He paints a stark picture of Northern

Rhodesia at decolonisation and the problems of the incoming government presented with an immense uphill task of rebuilding the infrastructure of government and administration civil service law local government and economic development Sardanis was a minister at the heart of the government and later a highly successful entrepreneur As a friend and colleague of many of the most prominent names in post independence Zambia from the presidencies of founding leader Kenneth Kaunda to the incumbent Michael Sata he uses his unique eyewitness experience to provide an inside view of a country in transition He looks at the highs and lows of Zambia s political development a purposeful beginning followed by many blunders confusion at times bordering on chaos interspersed with flashes of sensible action and good work This book provides a detailed examination of the major events in Zambia s history since independence and their effect on the country s development and progress based on Sardanis s in depth knowledge of Zambia and its people and the inner workings of its government

The Small States Club Armen Sarkissian,2023 A gracefully written reflection on how small states can pack a punch that belies their size

On the Edges of Whiteness Jochen Lingelbach,2020-05-01 From 1942 to 1950 nearly twenty thousand Poles found refuge from the horrors of war torn Europe in camps within Britain s African colonies including Uganda Tanganyika Kenya and Northern and Southern Rhodesia On the Edges of Whiteness tells their improbable story tracing the manifold complex relationships that developed among refugees their British administrators and their African neighbors While intervening in key historical debates across academic disciplines this book also gives an accessible and memorable account of survival and dramatic cultural dislocation against the backdrop of global conflict

Media and the British Empire C. Kaul,2006-03-28 The only true history of a country wrote Thomas Macaulay is to be found in its newspapers This book explores how the media shaped and defined the economic social political and cultural dynamics of the British Empire by viewing it from the perspective of the colonised as well as the colonisers

Mixed Race Britain in The Twentieth Century Chamion Caballero,Peter J. Aspinall,2018-05-07 This book explores the overlooked history of racial mixing in Britain during the course of the twentieth century a period in which there was considerable and influential public debate on the meanings and implications of intimately crossing racial boundaries Based on research that formed the foundations of the British television series Mixed Britannia the authors draw on a range of firsthand accounts and archival material to compare official accounts of racial mixing and mixedness with those told by mixed race people couples and families themselves Mixed Race Britain in The Twentieth Century shows that alongside the more familiarly recognised experiences of social bigotry and racial prejudice there can also be glimpsed constant threads of tolerance acceptance inclusion and ordinariness It presents a more complex and multifaceted history of mixed race Britain than is typically assumed one that adds to the growing picture of the longstanding diversity and difference that is and always has been an ordinary and everyday feature of British life

Nyerere Tom Molony,2014 This book presents the first truly rounded portrait of Nyerere s early life from his birth in 1922 until his graduation from Edinburgh in 1952 helping us to see his later political achievements in a new light It was after returning to Tanganyika that Mwalimu the teacher formally entered politics and led efforts to deliver Tanganyika to independence Publishers website
