Come With Daddy Child Murder Suicide After Family Breakdown Contemporary Issues:

Parents Killing Children Janice Sim, 2018-10-04 Parents Killing Children Crossing the Invisible Line explores hidden forms of violence within the family. This socio legal study addresses the interactions between the family and the state focusing on six parent perpetrators and the ways in which child endangerment is concealed within society. Drawing on symbolic interactionism, mythology and a modelling of case study data, this book puts forward a unique conceptualisation of representation and risk both on familial and state levels. The failure of the state to intervene and neutralise volatile perpetrators also sheds light on the socio legal status of children, society's most vulnerable, and the book concludes by discussing means by which the underlying social conditions and maladies symptomatic of child abuse and killing should be addressed.

The Routledge Companion to Gender, Media and Violence Karen Boyle, Susan Berridge, 2023-08-25 With the heated discussion around MeToo, journalistic reporting on domestic abuse and the popularity of true crime documentaries, gendered media discourse around violence and harassment has never been more prominent. The Routledge Companion to Gender, Media and Violence is an outstanding reference source to the key topics, problems and debates in this important subject and is the first collection on media and violence to take a gendered intersectional approach. Comprising over 50 chapters by a team of interdisciplinary and international contributors, the book is structured around the following parts: News Representing reality; Gender based violence online; Feminist responses. The media examples examined range from Australia to Zimbabwe and span print and online news, documentary film and television, podcasts, pornography, memoir, comedy, memes, influencer videos and digital feminist protest. Types of violence considered include domestic abuse, honour based violence, sexual violence and harassment, female genital mutilation, cutting, child sexual abuse, transphobic violence and the aftermath of conflict. Good practice is considered in relation to both responsible news reporting and pedagogy. The Routledge Companion to Gender, Media and Violence is essential reading for students and researchers in Gender Studies, Media Studies, Sociology and Criminology. Chapter 30 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial CC BY NC 4.0 license.

Gender-Based Violence: A Comprehensive Guide Parveen Ali, Michaela M. Rogers, 2023-06-01 This book provides comprehensive information about various types of gender based violence (GBV) and abuse. GBV is a major public health and social problem that affects people, mostly women and girls, in every community, culture and country. GBV refers to the violence or a pattern of abusive behaviours including physical aggression, sexual coercion, psychological abuse and controlling behaviours resulting in physical, sexual or psychological harm. It is associated with severe physical and psychological consequences and can result in death. GBV can take many forms including female foeticide, infanticide, female genital mutilation, child marriage, grooming, trafficking, forced marriage, dowry related abuse, honour based violence, rape, sexual assault, stalking, harassment, street violence, abuse against older people, domestic violence and intimate partner violence. It can take place in public, private and virtual settings and within the context of intimate familial community and institutional relationships While all these forms affect girls and women more boys and men can also be exposed of various forms of violence including child abuse sexual abuse wartime violence corporal punishment to name a few This book takes a unique approach and presents an overview of gender based violence and related practices throughout the world The book is written in a user friendly manner in order to be accessible as an introductory text to a wide range of readers including students practitioners and researchers Edited by a public health academic and a social worker with contributions representing a wide range of disciplines the book will appeal to many professions including nurses midwives social care and social work practitioners police teachers psychologists and sociologists
