Kroll, 2002-07-01 Enliven your literature and drama programs with these terrific Readers Theatre scripts Featuring 16 original scripts that have been adapted from classic works of English literature this book is perfect for use with young adults and ESL students The scripts are easy to read and bring out the spirit and essence of each literary work Each script comes with an introduction background information presentation suggestions prop recommendations and an overview of the characters Your students will thoroughly enjoy themselves as they learn about the subject Orea and improve their vocal and presentation skills And you will be pleased to support your school s English literature or language arts curriculum in a lively unconventional fashion Accessing the Classics La Vergne Rosow, 2005-12-30 Help readers improve reading skills while stimulating their appreciation and increasing their understanding of great literature Using a scaffolding approach this guide leads readers from simple and engaging reads to more challenging texts and simultaneously cultivates their interest and skills An invaluable resource for middle and high school ABE and ESL educators as well as for readers advisors All readers even those still learning to speak English can enjoy the delights and benefits of great literature with the help of this motivational and practical book guide Rosow takes you on a journey through the history of Western literature beginning with ancient myths and moving to medieval tales and classics of the Renaissance Romantic Movement and Modernism Along the way she shows you how to give readers easy access to some of the best literature of all time Scores of collections focus on such ancient and enduring stories as Gilgamesh Beowulf the tales of Chaucer historical masterpieces of William Shakespeare Jane Austen Edgar Allan Poe Charles Dickens and stellar names of more recent times such as Virginia Woolf John Steinbeck Ernest Hemingway and J R R Tolkien Each carefully selected collection lists an assortment of titles ranging in reading level and arranged progressively from simple renditions such as picture book re tellings through more advanced selections and readings where audio versions and simpler formatting support the reader and on to the most challenging reads Author profiles and narrative as well as detailed descriptions of each title provide further insights into the story lines and features of the books while building a scaffold of reading experience and knowledge to help readers better understand the texts For example the Mark Twain collection begins with a brief biographical sketch of the author followed by descriptions of two illustrated books about the author and two readers theatre skits based on his work A collection of Twain s short stories is recommended next and then several illustrated versions of his novels and an illustrated edition of Twain s memoir Life on the Mississippi which is supported by an audiotape version Each recommended title is rated as start here next read support here or challenging read and related reads and audio and video versions are listed when appropriate The author also notes author and student favorites titles with exceptional illustrations and other features of interest Focus is on authors and titles of the Western canon that are generally lu2768 le in library collections Because some of the titles cited are older editions this is a valuable collection development tool in libraries as well as an essential resource for readers advisors Adult Basic Education and English as Second Language educators and young adult educators and librarians Young adult and adult or Grades 9 and up Nonfiction Readers Theatre for Beginning Readers Anthony D. Fredericks,2007-04-30 Teachers and librarians are continually looking for an interesting fun way to input content knowledge to build that background information which will help push up student expository reading scores Nonfiction readers theatre is one way to accomplish this Professor Fredericks offers 30 short nonfiction readers theatre plays for the young reader grades 1 3 on topics ranging from earth and natural science to community helpers holidays and government Test scores across the country show American students are far more able to read narrative than nonfiction text Some research speculates this is due to a great lack in the background knowledge of many children Librarians are beginning to realize that a unique fit for the school librarian is as a provider of background knowledge materials for teachers to use Multi-Grade Readers Theatre Suzanne I. Barchers,Charla R, Pfeffinger,2009-05-19 36 readers theatre scripts use authors and illustrators to awaken student imaginations This book of 36 readers theatre scripts one for each week of the school year concentrates on scripts written at multiple reading levels with a large number of parts including choral reading parts that enable the entire class to participate The first 18 scripts are written for 1st 3rd grade reading levels and feature giants of kids literature like Margaret Wise Brown James Marshall Bill Martin Jr Bill Peet and Beatrix Potter The second 18 scripts are written for 2nd 4th grade reading levels to allow for growth throughout the school year This group of plays introduces students to Stan Berenstain Arnold Lobel Shel Silverstein and Tasha Tudor among others Carefully designed to meet the needs of students of various reading levels the scripts are also ideal for use with remedial readers Grades 2 5 Fun Literacy Activities for After-school Programs Sue Edwards,Kathleen Martinez,2004 This exciting first of its kind book helps after school staff members support literacy development while staying faithful to the unique mission of being something other than more school The authors explain the role of after school programs in literacy development and define aspects of literacy development The book contains 72 fun and engaging activities for all levels of school age readers African Legends, Myths, and Folktales for Readers Theatre Anthony D. Fredericks,2008-04-30 Teachers are continually looking for materials that will enhance their studies of cultures around the world With this new book author Tony Fredericks and illustrator Bongaman present readers theatre scripts based on traditional African folklore Plays are organized by area and identified by country Included are tales from Algeria to Zambia and all areas in between This title contains background information for teachers on each African country included as well as instruction and presentation suggestions The rationale and role of readers theatre in literacy instruction is discussed and additional resources for extending studies of African folklore are included Grades 4 8 Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker,2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading

Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson, 2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs

Comprehension Across the Curriculum Kathy Ganske, Douglas Fisher, 2010-01-01 Successful students use comprehension skills and strategies throughout the school day In this timely book leading scholars present innovative ways to support reading comprehension across content areas and the full K 12 grade range Chapters provide specific practical guidance for selecting rewarding texts and promoting engagement and understanding in social studies math and science as well as language arts and English classrooms Cutting edge theoretical perspectives and research findings are clearly explained Special attention is given to integrating out of school literacies into instruction and developing comprehension in English language learners

Social Studies Readers Theatre for Young Adults Kathy Howard Latrobe, Carol Casey, Linda A. Gann, 1991 Provides an overview of the techniques used in readers theatre and presents 16 completed scripts from selected classics in world literature to be used in readers theatre presentations
