Classic Readings In Cultural Anthropology 2nd Edition:

The Anthropology of Education David Julian Hodges, 2011-08-03 This unique anthology outlines and reconsiders the disciplinary origins of the anthropology of education. The book is a student oriented compilation of classic articles written by anthropologists who helped pioneer the field some fifty years ago. Their names constitute a veritable who's who in cultural anthropology: Kluckhohn, Linton, Mead, Benedict, and Redfield, to name a few, who while accomplished in the general area of cultural anthropology nevertheless gave specific attention to the developing area of the anthropology of education. Also included in the collection are contemporary classics by non-anthropologists such as Paulo Freire, James Baldwin, and Jonathan Kozol, who tackle more recent issues facing education and educators. The readings are termed classic because collectively they represent the best of that to which today's students of the anthropology of education should be exposed for a first rate introduction to the field. Despite their relevance and importance, many of these articles are out of print, difficult to find, or otherwise unavailable. There is still an abiding need for the insights they provide. The need for the thinking of these pioneers is as great today, arguably greater than when the articles were written. Their contributions and insights must not succumb to the awful tendency of our times for scholarship to be both instant and disposable. David Julian Hodges, Ph.D., is professor of anthropology at Hunter College of the City University of New York, where he has served with distinction in several capacities: Acting Dean, School of Education; Acting Chairperson, Department of Black and Puerto Rican Studies; and President of the Faculty. Dr. Hodges has conducted ethnographic fieldwork among the Cajuns of Southwestern Louisiana and the Iban of Borneo. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Morris Brown College in Atlanta. He received his Master's degree and Ph.D. from New York University under the tutelage of anthropologist Ethel J. Alpenfels. Dr. Hodges also engaged in post-doctoral studies at Harvard and Oxford universities.

Classic Readings in Cultural Anthropology Gary P. Ferraro, 2004 This accessible reader has been edited by the author of the original texts, Gary Ferraro, to include articles and excerpts from works that have been pivotal to the field of anthropology and that have displayed enduring relevance. Researching and Working on the Arabian Peninsula Marielle Risse, 2025-04-28 This book outlines strategies for current or soon-to-be business professionals, government employees, researchers, and teachers to communicate, study, and work effectively on the Arabian Peninsula. Using first-person accounts as well as scholarly research from the fields of history, anthropology, political science, travel writing, and literature, this book gives clear advice for expats wanting to create successful interactions with people from Arabian Peninsula societies. By discussing how the practicalities of work and research intersect with cultural norms, this book fills the gap between tourist guides aimed at the casual tourists and academic texts on narrowly defined topics.

Sacred Anthropology Tyshawyn Gardner,2022-10-25 Pastors are often ill equipped in preparing churches to be sacred advocates and activists in the communities most affected by social injustice and neglect Sacred Anthropology aims to inform and equip pastors in discipling the body of Christ to effect social transformation in times of social crisis Tyshawyn Gardner envisions the pastor as a sacred anthropologist as one who understands the cultures of other image bearers for the sake of promoting the justice of God in the world As a pastoral mandate the sacred anthropologist challenges churches to be engaged in the political and social transformation of their community The social anthropologist employs both secular and theological tools for an effective contextualized ministry This book posits prophetic radicalism as a pastoral theology and the pastoral office as the center of prophetic radicalism yet it does not limit prophetic radicalism to the pastoral office Sacred Anthropology is written with pastors and parishioners from any ethnic group in mind but draws heavily on the prophetic pastoral and preaching tradition of African American pastors and churches Using this foundation and tradition sacred anthropologists can lead their congregations in a way that challenges them to be involved engaged and transformative

A Performative Feel for the Game Trygve B. Broch, 2019-12-21 Applying a cultural sociology of performance this book interrogates how the meaning of sport intersects with gender Trygve B Broch points out uncertainties in the causal arguments made by key figures in the cultural studies tradition instead advancing a meaning centered study of sports as involving both a social and an athletic performance Sports not only reflect or reverse social realities but capture and keep our attention when we use and experience them as a means to reflect on social life injustice and hierarchy More specifically blending approaches from media studies with ethnography Broch explores the women dominated sport of handball in Norway a country that considers gender equality a basis of democracy As such the analyses here show how broadly available meanings about sameness and equality are mediated and experienced through a performative feel for the game

Anthropology and Child Development Robert A. LeVine, Rebecca S. New, 2008-02-11 This unprecedented collection of articles is an introduction to the study of cultural variations in childhood across the world and to the theoretical frameworks for investigating and interpreting them Presents a history of cross cultural approaches to child development Recent articles examine diverse contexts of childhood in ecological semiotic and sociolinguistic terms Includes ethnographic studies of childhood in the Pacific Africa Latin America East Asia Europe and North America Illuminates the process through which people become the bearers of culturally historically specific identities Serves as an ideal text for anthropology courses focusing on childhood as well as classes on development psychology

The Anthropology of Citizenship Sian Lazar, 2013-11-11 The Anthropology of Citizenship introduces the theoretical foundations of and cutting edge approaches to citizenship in the contemporary world in local national and global contexts Key readings provide a cross cultural perspective on citizenship practices and an individual citizen s relationship with the state Introduces a range of exciting and cutting edge approaches to citizenship in the contemporary world Provides key readings for students and researchers who wish to gain an understanding of citizenship practices and an individual s relationship with the state in a global context Offers an anthropological perspective on citizenship the self and political agency with a focus on encounters between citizens and the state in education law development and immigration policy Provides students with an understanding of the theoretical foundations of citizenship as characterized by liberal and civic republican ideas of political belonging and exclusion Explores how citizenship is constructed at different scales and in different spaces Twenty five key writings identify what is a new and vibrant subfield within politics and anthropological research
