Harris,2015-07-18 Excerpt from Christian Science and the Ordinary Man A Discussion of Some of the Teachings of Mary Baker Eddy Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science I should add to this foreword the statement that while this book has in its title the words Christian Science the author is one who believes that all mankind are on the way to final and conscious unity with God Many theories of truth held by men have elements of real truth in them which elements of real truth as the leaven which leavens the whole lump will the author believes eventually lead their followers through experience out of those portions of their belief which are untrue and into the one way of truth which is that trod by Christ Jesus This book in addition to being a discussion of Christian Science is in part an attempt to set forth the essential true elements existing in some other beliefs to the end that a starting point may be found for greater brotherhood among all churches and beliefs a basis in Christ for the Brotherhood of Man About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Allure of Immortality Lyn Millner, 2023-02-07 Wall Street Journal's Five Best Books About Cults The true story of cult leader Cyrus Teed and his hollow earth theory For five days in December 1908 the body of Cyrus Teed lay in a bathtub at a beach house just south of Fort Myers Florida His followers the Koreshans waited for signs that he was coming back to life They watched hieroglyphics emerge on his skin and observed what looked like the formation of a third arm They saw his belly fall and rise with breath even though his swollen tongue sealed his mouth As his corpse turned black they declared that their leader was transforming into the Egyptian god Horus Teed was a charismatic and controversial guru who at the age of 30 had been illuminated by an angel in his electro alchemical laboratory At the turn of the twentieth century surrounded by the marvels of the Second Industrial Revolution he proclaimed himself a prophet and led 200 people out of Chicago and into a new age Or so he promised The Koreshans settled in a mosquito infested scrubland and set to building a communal utopia inside what they believed was a hollow earth with humans living on the inside crust and the entire universe contained within According to Teed's socialist and millennialist teachings if his people practiced celibacy and focused their love on him he would return after death and they would all become immortal Was Teed a visionary or villain savior or two bit charlatan Why did his promises and his theory of cellular cosmogony persuade so many Now comes the bombshell news that David Koresh apocalyptic leader of the Waco Branch Davidians plagiarized Teed and did so unwittingly Released on the 30th anniversary of the deadly events in Waco this edition of The Allure of Immortality includes a preface about this astonishing discovery In this book Lyn Millner weaves the many bizarre strands of Teed's life and those of his followers into a riveting story of angels conmen angry husbands yellow journalism and ultimately hope
