Classical Chinese Literature:

Classical Chinese Literature: From antiquity to the Tang dynasty John Minford, Joseph S. M. Lau, 2002 Contains English translations of Chinese writings drawn from throughout a period of four hundred years including poems drama fiction songs biographies and early works of philosophy and history arranged chronologically and by genre with introductory quotes and comments Remembrances Stephen Owen, 1986 Stephen Owen's book inspired by Chinese literature is for all who value literature in any language Remembrances takes up the strongest claims we can make for literature that it can sustain life in the present as well as the life of the past The past has always played a particularly powerful role in Chinese civilization Owen shows how the fascination with the past came into being in Chinese literature and he discusses some of the forms it took and the ways readers have responded He reflects on a series of moments in Chinese writing from the seventh century B C to the early nineteenth century moments when the past rose up with particular force Through poems anecdotes exegeses and one long story of an ardent collector and his wife Owen treats a theme basic to Chinese civilization not as an exotic conceit but as a motif fundamental to our own civilization even though its expression differs from our own From publisher's description
