The Classroom Teacher Milo Burdette Hillegas, Thomas Henry Briggs, 1927 Millennial Teachers of Color Mary E. Dilworth, 2021-03-02 2019 Outstanding Book Award American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education AACTE
Millennial Teachers of Color explores the opportunities and challenges for creating and sustaining a healthy teaching force in the United States Millennials are the largest generational cohort in American history with approximately ninety million members and of these roughly 43 percent are people of color This book edited by prominent teacher educator Mary E Dilworth considers the unique qualities challenges and opportunities posed by that large population for the teaching field Noting that a diverse teaching and learning community enhances student achievement particularly for the underserved and underachieving preK 12 student population Dilworth argues that efforts to recruit groom and retain teachers of color are out of date and inadequate She and the contributors offer fresh looks at these millennials and explore their views of the teaching profession focus attention on their relation to schools and teaching and consider how these young teachers feel about teaching for social justice The book is intended to disrupt the current line of inquiry that suggests that by simply increasing the number of teachers of color equity has been established Readers will gain insights on this unique and valuable group of prospective and practicing preK 12 educators and understanding of the need for more contemporary approaches to recruitment preparation hiring and placement Contributors Keffrelyn D Brown Keith C Catone Genesis A Chavez Marcus J Coleman Hollee R Freeman Michael Hansen Socorro G Herrera Sarah Ishmael Sabrina Hope King Adam T Kuranishi Lindsay A Miller Amanda R Morales Janice Hamilton Outtz Zollie Stevenson Jr Dulari Tahbildar Angela M Ward

The Color of Teaching June Gordon, 2002-11-01 One of the major concerns in education at present is how to recruit and attract more teachers from ethnic minorities In an attempt to move beyond the superficial and simplistic responses as to why these students are not entering teaching this book presents in depth interviews with over two hundred people from four ethnic groups African Americans Native Americans Asian Americans and Latinos These interviewees many of them teachers or education professionals express their attitude towards teaching and their understanding of why others may not choose teaching as a career One of the most significant and surprising findings is that regardless of academic or socio economic standing students from these ethnic groups tend not to be encouraged to enter the teaching profession by their own families communities and peers The book concludes with a discussion of programmatic changes and calls for the reconceptualization of the role of teachers Such changes can only arise out of a fundamental change in attitude of communities of color towards teaching which must be led by teachers themselves

Handbook of Research on Teacher Education Marilyn Cochran-Smith, Sharon Feiman-Nemser, John McIntyre, Kelly E. Demers, 2008-02-19 Co Published by Routledge Taylor Francis Group and the Association of Teacher Educators The Handbook of Research on Teacher Education was initiated to ferment change in education based on solid evidence The publication of the First Edition was a signal event in 1990 While the preparation of educators was then and continues to be the topic of substantial discussion there did not exist a codification of the best that was known at the time about teacher education Reflecting the needs of educators today the Third Edition takes a new approach to achieving the same purpose Beyond simply conceptualizing the broad landscape of teacher education and providing comprehensive reviews of the latest research for major domains of practice this edition stimulates a broad conversation about foundational issues brings multiple perspectives to bear provides new specificity to topics that have been undifferentiated in the past includes diverse voices in the conversation The Editors with an Advisory Board identified nine foundational issues and translated them into a set of focal questions What s the Point The Purposes of Teacher Education What Should Teachers Know Teacher Capacities Knowledge Beliefs Skills and Commitments Where Should Teachers Be Taught Settings and Roles in Teacher Education Who Teaches Who Should Teach Teacher Recruitment Selection and Retention Does Difference Make a Difference Diversity and Teacher Education How Do People Learn to Teach Who s in Charge Authority in Teacher Education How Do We Know What We Know Research and Teacher Education What Good is Teacher Education The Place of Teacher Education in Teachers Education The Association of Teacher Educators ATE is an individual membership organization devoted solely to the improvement of teacher education both for school based and post secondary teacher educators For more information on our organization and publications please visit www.ate1.org

Students of Color and the Achievement Gap Richard R. Valencia, 2015-03-05 Students of Color and the Achievement Gap is a comprehensive landmark analysis of an incontrovertible racialized reality in U S K 12 public education the relentless achievement gap between low socioeconomic students of color and their economically advantaged White counterparts Award winning author and scholar Richard Valencia provides an authoritative and systemic treatment of the achievement gap focusing on Black and Latino Latina students He examines the societal and educational factors that help to create and maintain the achievement gap by drawing from critical race theory an asset based perspective and a systemic inequality approach By showing how racialized opportunity structures in society and schools ultimately result in racialized patterns of academic achievement in schools Valencia shows how the various indicators of the achievement gap are actually symptoms of the societal and school quality gaps Following each of these concerns Valencia provides a number of reform suggestions that can lead to systemic transformations of K 12 education Students of Color and the Achievement Gap makes a persuasive and well documented case that school success for students of color and the empowerment of their parents can only be fully understood and realized when contextualized within broader political economic and cultural frameworks But I Don't See Color Terry Husband, 2016-07-25 Racism is still very prevalent and pervasive in all aspects of the P 12 educational experience in the United States Far too many teachers and administrators continue to respond to this challenge by applying colorblind perspectives and approaches This edited volume provides a broad and comprehensive critique of colorblindness in various educational contexts In an attempt to advocate for a more color conscious approach to education this book deals with a wide range of issues related to teaching learning curriculum creativity assessment discipline implicit bias and teacher education There are three distinct features that make this book so important and relevant given the current social and racial climate in U S schools today First each chapter in this book draws from a plethora of different theoretical perspectives related to race and racism In this sense readers are equipped with variety of robust theoretical perspectives to better understand this complicated issue of racism in schools Second this book communicates issues of race and racism through multiple voices

Unlike other books on race and racism where the central voice is that of a researcher or scholar this book centralizes the voices and perspectives of researchers teachers and teacher educators alike As a result readers are better able to understand issues of race and racism in schools from a more nuanced perspective Finally unlike other books related to race and racism in schools this book provides readers with practical strategies for combating racism in their respective educational contexts
