Cleveland TV Tales Mike Olszewski, Janice Olszewski, 2014 These 57 short stories are an entertaining introduction to the history of Cleveland Ohio for natives or newcomers They highlight exceptional people and notable events from log cabin days to the mighty industrial era and cover subjects from sports to fashion to crime For any Clevelander who wants to know a little more about the old hometown "They say I'm not a girl" Max Dohle, 2020-06-19 In July 1950 a young Dutch intersex woman was expelled from elite competition by the International Amateur Athletic Federation It turned out to be the beginning of a dark era in the history of women in sport Young women were subjected to humiliating examinations and dozens of intersex athletes were suspended although no fraud was ever uncovered This book presents a compelling argument against gender verification showing the pernicious effects that suspension inflicted on the lives of young athletes Some withdrew from the public eye lived in solitude or even committed suicide Compassionate profiles of these banned athletes highlight the unfair play of gender verification and of their exclusion from competition Cleveland Radio Tales Mike and Janice Olszewski, 2017-10-01 Remember when Cleveland radio was filled with larger than life characters Let s go behind the microphone to meet dozens of intriguing and innovative local radio personalities including Count John Manolesco the talk show host astrologer and former vampire who performed an exorcism live on air A daytime host who raised eyebrows and gained headlines when he did his entire show in the nude Inventive Wayne Mack whose make believe big band concerts seemed so real that listeners drove around for hours in search of his fictional Waltz Palace ballroom Loudmouth Gary Dee who scored big ratings interviewing strippers and once knocked a fellow DJ out cold Media mogul Milton Maltz a square who teamed up with hippies to transform WMMS into a rock and roll giant Young Jack Paar who nearly lost his first radio job while saving Cleveland from a Martian invasion The undaunted DJs of WABQ who broke FCC rules to stay on the air during the Glenville riots in 1968 Teenage amateurs whose pirate radio stations drew loyal local listeners and angry visits from the Feds Plus stories of live remotes gone wrong unruly in studio guests management scuffles the river of booze that fueled radio and more strange but true tales
