Suszko, Barney Taxel, 2013 Describes the one hundred year history of Cleveland's West Side Market covering the building people food and how it has changed over time Moon Cleveland Douglas Trattner, 2014-08-05 Award winning journalist and Cleveland native Douglas Trattner knows the best way to experience this often overlooked mecca After investigating every nook and cranny of his favorite city he now shares his expertise in Moon Cleveland Whether you're interested in exploring the 20 000 acres of Cleveland's Metroparks or spending the afternoon indoors at the famous Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Trattner guides you to exciting activities for all ages including hot air ballooning over Amish Country angling for Walleye on Lake Erie and zipping through town on a Segway Packed with insider's information on dining transportation and accommodations Moon Cleveland gives travelers the tools they need to create a more personal and memorable experience Movable Markets Helen Tangires, 2019-05-07 The untold story of America's wholesale food business In nineteenth century America municipal deregulation of the butcher trade and state incorporated market companies gave rise to a flourishing wholesale trade In Movable Markets Helen Tangires describes the evolution of the American wholesale marketplace for fresh food from its development as a bustling produce district in the heart of the city to its current indiscernible place in food industrial parks on the urban periphery Tangires follows the middlemen those intermediaries who became functional necessities as the railroads accelerated the process of delivering perishable food to the city Tracing their rise and decline in the wake of a deregulated food economy she asks How did these people who occupied such key roles as food distributors and suppliers to the retail trade end up exiled to urban outskirts Moving into the early twentieth century she explains how progressive city planners and agricultural economists responded to anxieties about the high cost of living traffic congestion and disruptions in the food supply by questioning the centrality aging infrastructure and organizational structure of wholesale markets Tangires combines economic and cultural history by analyzing popular literature innovative scholarship and USDA publications Detailing the legal physical and organizational means behind the complex exodus of food wholesaling from the urban core Tangires also reveals how the trade adjusted to life beyond the city limits as it created new channels of distribution product lines and markets Readers interested in US history city and regional planning history food history and public policy as well as anyone curious about the disappearance of the central produce district as a major component of the city will find Movable Markets a fascinating read

Cleveland Beer Leslie Basalla, Peter Chakerian, 2015-11-02 Cleveland loves its craft beer The city's breweries are flourishing under a period of brewing renewal and an insatiable taste for quality local craftsmanship But Cleveland's brewing industry hasn't always enjoyed such prosperous times The industry boomed during the 1800s only to see Prohibition dwindling demand and increased competition stifle production Each brewery one by one closed its doors until none remained In 1988 Patrick and Daniel Conway opened the fledgling Great Lakes Brewing Company and the industry was born anew

Today local visionaries are engineering the comeback and bringing national attention to Cleveland's award winning craft brews Authors Leslie Basalla and Peter Chakerian chart the remarkable history of the ups and downs of Cleveland beer
