Explorations in Cultural Anthropology Colleen E. Boyd, Luke Eric Lassiter, 2024-03-26 Explorations in Cultural Anthropology is a collection of readings chosen to demonstrate the varied and valuable applications of the anthropological perspective to real world problems on local regional and global scales It introduces undergraduates to the exciting perplexing and troubling issues that socio cultural anthropologists confront in their work in academia and beyond Students now have a one stop source for a variety of key ethnographic and cultural materials without having to buy or search for numerous texts Explorations in Cultural Anthropology offers 31 classic readings and contemporary anthropological essays as well as pieces written by journalists scholars from other disciplines cultural consultants and community leaders The selections are meant to thoughtfully challenge students and provoke further discussion within introductory level classrooms The book is organized into nine parts that reflect significant themes and current trends in cultural anthropology Culture Fieldwork and Ethnography Language Communication and Expressive Culture Socio economic and Political Systems in a Changing World Race and Ethnicity Gender and Sexuality Marriage Family and Kinship Belief Systems and Applied and Future Anthropologies Each part introduces the articles therein and provides probing questions per article for student response This outstanding collection perfectly complements Luke Eric Lassiter's Invitation to Anthropology textbook but has wide appeal for all introductory cultural anthropology courses Conformity and Conflict Dianna J. Shandy, David W. McCurdy, James P. Spradley, 2023-08-17 This best selling collection of engaging articles has enlivened cultural anthropology courses for decades The lead editor of the sixteenth edition Dianna Shandy first encountered Conformity and Conflict as an undergraduate and began teaching from the book in 1999 From the first through the sixteenth edition the editors have chosen classic works and solicited original pieces that powerfully illuminate the nature of culture and its influence on people's lives One of the overarching principles through the years has been to include material on North American cultures so readers can make their own cultural comparisons and see the relevance of anthropology to their own lives Readers sharpen critical thinking skills as they examine their assumptions identify perspectives and assess their beliefs Selections are organized around topics found in many textbooks and courses facilitating usage by instructors who do not want to assign a standard text Part introductions include discussion of many basic anthropological definitions Article introductions coherently and systematically link selections to anthropological concepts Sections and selections include environmental global and practicing anthropological subfields as well as traditional interests such as language gender kinship economics politics law inequality and religion The forty readings in this collection cover a broad range of theoretical perspectives juxtaposing classic and contemporary ethnographic work to introduce students to a broad range of authors The selections provide a fascinating way to look at human experience and make sense of the world around us
