Classics And Translation:

The Classics in Translation F. Seymour Smith, 1968

The Classics in Translation Frank Seymour Smith, 1930

Classics in Translation Peter Jones, 1998-11-12 Introducing the work of 20 of the ancient world's greatest authors this work presents brief readable essays fully illustrated with quotations from modern and some ancient translations The writers covered include Homer Sappho Herodotus the Greek tragedians the comic poets sexy and subtle love poets such as Catullus and vicious but witty satirists like Martial and Juvenal Classics and Translation D. S. Carne-Ross, 2010 D S Carne Ross was one of the finest critics of classical literature in English translation after Arnold More than four decades of Carne Ross's writings are represented in this volume which includes criticism of both ancient and modern writers in addition to historical critical studies of translation discriminating analyses of translators widely read today and investigations in the relationship between translation criticism and literary creation This book will appeal to a wide audience including classicists specialists in reception and translation studies students of comparative literature and literary readers Two chapters give readings of the Odyssey and the Oresteia others focus on significant and influential translations of those works Two long essays give extended accounts of two of the most widely read twentieth century translators of Greek and Latin Robert Fitzgerald and Richmond Lattimore there are also incisive studies of translations by H D David Ferry Christopher Logue and others Some essays focus on a particular work author or genre in translation for example Pindar's Pythian 12 Horace Greek tragedy and Greek epigram The first and final chapters use translation as a point of departure in order to investigate questions about transfers between ancient and modern literatures In all the essays translated works are considered in their relation to Greek or Roman literature and also as contributions to English literature as a source of innovation for it or as a way of laying bare connections between past and present moments A Companion to the Translation of Classical Epic Richard

Armstrong, Alexandra Lianeri, 2025-04-01 The first volume of its kind to integrate trends in Translation Studies with Classical Reception Studies A Companion to the Translation of Classical Epic provides a comprehensive and wide ranging account of key debates and case studies centered the translation of Greek and Latin epics Rather than situating translation studies as a complementary field or an aspect of classical reception the Companion offers a systematic framework for adapting and incorporating translation studies fully into classical studies Its many chapters elaborate how translation is a central element in the epic's reception trajectories across the globe and addresses theoretical and methodological concerns arising from this conjunction The Companion does not just provide a comprehensive overview of the translation theories it covers but also offers fresh insights into theoretical and methodological issues currently at the top of the interdisciplinary agenda of scholars studying the global routes of ancient epic In its sections leading classicists translation theorists classical reception scholars and cultural historians from Europe and North and South America reconfigure questions this research faces today highlighting methods for an integrated approach It explores how this integrated perspective responds to key challenges in the study of the epic's reception emphasizing topics of temporality, gender, agency, community, target language, politics, and material production. A special section also features detailed dialogues with active translators such as Emily Wilson, Stanley Lombardo, and Susanna Braund, who speak extensively and frankly about their work. This is a key volume for all students and scholars who want to engage with research reflecting the contemporary agenda in classical reception, translation studies, and the study of epic in its global literary and cultural routes. Classics in Translation Paul Lachlan MacKendrick, Herbert Marshall Howe, 1952. Annotation: Here translated into modern idiom are many works of the authors whose ideas have constituted the mainstream of classical thought. This volume of new translations was born of necessity to answer the needs of a course in Greek and Roman culture offered by the Department of Integrated Liberal Studies at the University of Wisconsin. Since its original publication in 1952, Classics in Translation has been adopted by many different academic institutions to fill similar needs of their undergraduate students. This new printing is further evidence of this collection's general acceptance by teachers, students, and the reviewing critics.

Translations from the Classics Into English from Caxton to Chapman, 1477-1620 Henry Burrowes Lathrop, 1933 The classics in translation Frank S. Smith, 1968

Classics in Translation Herbert Marshall Howe, Paul Lachlan MacKendrick, 1952 Translation Classics in Context Paul F. Bandia, James Hadley, Siobhán McElduff, 2024-07-31. Translation Classics in Context carefully considers the relationship between translation and the classics. It presents readers with revelatory and insightful case studies that investigate translations produced as part of nexuses of colonial resistance and liberation across Africa and in Ireland; translations of novels and folklore collections that influence not just other fictions but stage productions and entire historical disciplines; struggles over Ukrainian and Russian literature and how it is shaped and transferred; and the role of the academy and the curriculum in creating notions of classic translations. Along the way, it covers oral poetry, saints, scholars, Walter Scott, and Jules Verne, not to mention Leo Tolstoy and the Corpse Bride making her way from folklore to Frankenstein and into the world of Disney animation. Contributors are all leading scholars, and the book is accessible and engaging, assuming no specialist knowledge. Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives (CC BY-NC-ND) 4.0 license.
