Merleau-Ponty and Buddhism Gereon Kopf, Jin Y. Park, 2009-08-13 Merleau Ponty and Buddhism explores a new mode of philosophizing through a comparative study of Maurice Merleau Ponty's phenomenology and philosophies of major Buddhist thinkers such as Nagarjuna Chinul Dogen Shinran and Nishida Kitaro Challenging the dualistic paradigm of existing philosophical traditions Merleau Ponty proposes a philosophy in which the traditional opposites are encountered through mutual penetration Likewise a Buddhist worldview is articulated in the theory of dependent co arising or the middle path which comprehends the world and beings in the third space where the subject and the object or eternalism and annihilation exist independent of one another The thirteen essays in this volume explore this third space in their discussions of Merleau Ponty's concepts of the intentional arc the flesh of the world and the chiasm of visibility in connection with the Buddhist doctrine of no self and the five aggregates the Tiantai Buddhist concept of threefold truth Zen Buddhist huatou meditation the invocation of the Amida Buddha in True Pure Land Buddhism and Nishida's concept of basho In his philosophical project Merleau Ponty makes vigorous efforts to challenge the boundaries that divide philosophy and non philosophy the East and the West experience and concepts the subject and the object and body and mind Combining the Eastern philosophical tradition of Buddhism with Merleau Ponty's phenomenology Merleau Ponty and Buddhism offers an intercultural philosophy in which opposites intermingle in a chiasmic relationship and which brings new understanding regarding the self and the self's relation with others in a globalized and multicultural world

The Garden of Flowers and Weeds Matthew Juksan Sullivan, 2021-11-16 International Book Awards Religion Eastern Top Award American Book Festival's Best Book Awards Winner Religion Eastern Nautilus Award Gold Benjamin Franklin Award Silver Independent Book Publisher's Award Bronze Named One of the Best Books of 2021 Spirituality and Practice Magazine An intriguing challenging crash course in Zen Buddhism Kirkus Reviews A generation defining rendering of one of the great Zen Buddhist scriptures Spirituality and Practice For centuries The Blue Cliff Record has stood as one of the preeminent scriptures of the Zen Buddhist tradition in China Japan and Korea However until now there has been no published commentary by a contemporary Zen Master to assist readers in understanding its counterintuitive and sometimes baffling teachings The Garden of Flowers and Weeds draws on contemporary scholarship and the author's extensive experience with Zen in order to offer new insights for sophisticated students who are hoping to uncover the secrets of the koan tradition At the same time The Garden is jargon free and uses personal stories to appeal to readers who are new to Buddhism The theme of the book is simple Accepting the unenlightened self with all its flaws is the most profound form of enlightenment Even with this clarity finding a path into these old Zen stories is a challenge They are designed to be roadblocks to intellectual understanding Using personal memoir the oral teachings of Zen and meditation instruction The Garden assists the reader in approaching the dialogues as spiritual exercises The Blue Cliff Record contains an explosive power but you can only access it by integrating its wisdom into your everyday experiences As Zen Master Nanquan said Ordinary mind is the Way Books in Print Supplement ,2002 A Journey in Search of Wholeness and Meaning Rupert Clive Collister, 2010 This book explores the concept that the reality which is created by the consciousness inherent in the Western worldview is exceptionally limiting and probably unsustainable After describing the contexts within which the book was written the author documents his personal journey in search of wholeness and meaning From his experience of this journey he suggests that the wisdom insight and praxis contained within what he describes as the meta narratives of Holism Indigenous cultures and Eastern traditions are manifestations of a holistic consciousness The author explores the concept that a shift to such a holistic consciousness is required in order to redress the imbalance that is evident in all humanity's relationships and he suggests that enabling such a shift in consciousness would have deep implications for the concepts and contexts of community adult learning meaningful work and sustainability Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2002-02 Imaginary Boundaries of Justice Ronnie Lippens, 2005-01-14 It has become increasingly difficult to speak or even think social or legal justice in an age when words have left their moorings Perhaps images are more stable than words maybe images and imagery possess a certain viscosity even a sensory quality which prevents them from evaporating This maybe is what this book is about The contributors to this collection explore the issue of how the Imaginary images imagery imagination has a role in the production and reproduction of visions of legal and social justice It argues that visions of justice are inevitably bounded Boundaries of visions of justice however are also imaginary They emerge within imaginary spaces and as they are

imaginary they are inherently unstable The book captures an emerging interest in the humanities and social sciences in images and the visual or the Imaginary more broadly This collection will appeal to scholars and students of social and legal theory visual culture justice and governance studies media studies and criminology On Revelation Eric

Rhode, 2019-08-08 Revelation Occurs to each of us at every hour in the form of thoughts feelings dreams insights and intuitions that seemingly derive from an unknown source it feels like a gift And yet it is inseparable from the catastrophic Eric Rhode shows how this might be so Writing from within a psychoanalytic tradition he draws on material from anthropology mythology and from theories of place and pilgrimage He looks to Kafka s parable of the dying emperor to discover how revelation as gift and revelation as catastrophe co exist in tragic disjunction
