Death, Told Under Canvas, & Claude Gueux Victor Hugo, 2015-12-19 Opening lines from Chapter 1 Sentenced to death For five whole weeks have I lived with this one thought always alone with it always frozen by its ghastly presence always crushed beneath its overwhelming weight At first years ago as it seemed not mere weeks as it really was I was a man like any other Every day every hour every minute was ruled by its own idea My intellect young and fresh lost itself in a world of fantasy I amused myself in mapping out a life without order and without end weaving into a thousand fantastic patterns the coarse and slender tissue of my existence There were lovely girls cardinals copes victories won theatres full of life and light and then again the young girls and walks in the twilight under the spreading boughs of the chestnut trees My imagination always pictured scenes of pleasure My thoughts were free and therefore I was free also This edition has been formatted for easy reading The Last Day of a Condemned Man and Claude Gueux Victor Hugo, 2011 Victor Hugo 1802 1885 was a celebrated French novelist poet playwright dramatist essayist and statesman whose work ushered in the Romantic literary movement in France one of the most influential movements in French and all European literary history Like many of his time Hugo promoted the virtues of liberty individualism spirit and nature in rebellion of the conservative political and religious establishments of Imperial France and eventually became known as one of the most gifted and influential writers of his time The Last Day of a Condemned Man is one of Hugo s first mature works of fiction written in 1829 and recounts the thoughts of a condemned man as he prepares for death The short novel would later have profound influence on writers like Albert Camus Charles Dickens and Fyodor Dostoevsky Claude Gueux is a short story written in 1834 It contains Hugo s early thoughts on society injustice which would be refined and fleshed out over the course of a few decades resulting in the publication of Les Mis rables in 1862 Hugo's Works Victor Hugo,2007-09 Volume Twelve of The Works of Victor Hugo features The Man Who Laughs Part 2 and Claude Gueux Last Day of a Condemned Man ; Claude Gueux Victor Hugo,1977 In this profoundly moving milestone by the author of Les Mis rables a condemned man writes of his mental anguish inside the walls of a prison With six weeks of life left to him before facing the guillotine for a crime that is never revealed he looks back on the events of his life Under Sentence of Death - Or, a Criminal's Last Hours - Together with - Told Under Canvas and Claude Gueux Victor Hugo,2016-07-28 This volume contains three works by the seminal French writer Victor Hugo including Under Sentence of Death or A Criminal s Last Hour Told Under Canvas and Claude Gueux A fantastic collection and a must have for fans and Hugo s work Victor Marie Hugo 1802 1885 was a French novelist dramatist and poet belonging to the Romantic movement He is widely hailed as one of the most accomplished and well known French writers originally achieving renown for his poetical endeavours the most notable of which are the volumes Les Contemplations and La Legende des siecles Outside of his native country Hugo s best known works are his novels Les Mis rables 1862 and Notre Dame de Paris 1831 commonly known as The Hunchback of Notre Dame Aside from his literary achievements he also produced over 4 000 beautiful drawings and was a prominent campaigner for social and political issues including the abolition of capital punishment Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive We are republishing this book now in an affordable high quality modern edition complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author

Bug-Jargal; to Which Are Added Claude Gueux, and the Last Days of a Condemned Victor Hugo,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1894 edition Excerpt book except to an educated man Claude could neither sew nor read As he was passing through the old discredited whitewashed cloister which was used as a place to walk in winter he approached the convict Ferrari who was gazing at the huge bars at one of the windows Claude had the little pair of scissors in his hand and showed them to Ferrari To night he said I will cut yon bars with these scissors Ferrari began to laugh incredulously and Claude joined him j That morning he worked with more energy than usual never had he done his work so quickly and so well He seemed to be determined to finish before noon a straw hat which a worthy citizen of

Troyes M Bressier had paid him for in advance A little before noon he made an excuse for going down to the cabinet making shop on the groundfloor below the shop in which he worked Claude was beloved there as elsewhere but he rarely went there Hallo here s Claude the prisoners exclaimed They surrounded him It was a holiday for them Claude cast a rapid glance through the room Not one of the overseers was there Who has a hatchet he will loan me he said What for some one asked him He replied To kill the superintendent of the shops to night Several hatchets were offered him to select from He took the smallest which was very sharp hid it in his trousers and went out There were twentyseven prisoners He did not ask them to keep his secret They all kept it They did not even talk of the thing among themselves Each one waited to see what would happen It was a terrible affair but perfectly simple and direct There was no possible complication They could not advise Claude and would not betray him An hour later he went up to a young convict of
