Campus Crime Legal Social And Policy Perspectives:

Campus Crime Bonnie Fisher, John J. Sloan, 2007 Criminologists political scientists sociologists planners lawyers security experts and policy advocates address the most pressing crime and security issues that continue to face post secondary administrators and their students faculty and staff Each chapter addresses a specific issue presents original research bearing on the issue and discusses policy implications for higher education of the research While some chapters continue to address long standing topics such as sexual victimization and the role of campus police departments many chapters address new and emerging topics such as stalking computer hacking and identity theft The final part of the book suggests future directions for research programs and policies Here the authors review some of the major questions about campus crime and security that are still in need of answers and relate these to programs and policy decisions by campus administrators Campus Crime Bonnie S. Fisher, John J. Sloan, III, 2022-09-19 This new edition of Campus Crime shares with readers the advancements that have been made in understanding campus crime Across the three sections of the book chapters review changes while also addressing current and even future crime and security issues confronting institutions of higher education Some of these chapters address long standing topics such as the sexual victimization of college women and the role of campus police departments in securing IHEs Other chapters address new issues in campus crime such as drugging victimization concealed carrying of firearms on campus and technology based security issues such as the challenges posed by cybercriminals as well as activities like cyberstalking and identity theft that involve campus community members both as victims and offenders Although there are new topics and contributors to this edition the previously covered chapters have been updated as well The authors have brought together contributors who could provide both a current picture and critical analysis of issues concerning the legal social security and policy contexts of campus crime The chapters review topics at hand offer substantive critical analyses thought provoking discussion and raise relevant policy issues questions and answers This fourth edition combines seasoned campus crime experts with those relatively new to the study of campus crime who represent the next generation of scholars and practitioners in the field and bring with them the passion that comes with beginning to address what they see as the issues explanations solutions for and responses to campus crime Campus Crime: legal, social & Policy Perspectives b.s; sloan fisher (j.s), 1995 Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention Bonnie S. Fisher, Steven P. Lab, 2010-02-02 Victimology and crime prevention are growing interrelated areas cutting across several disciplines Victimology examines victims of all sorts of criminal activity from domestic abuse to street violence to victims in the workplace who lose jobs and pensions due to malfeasance by corporate executives Crime prevention is an important companion to victimology because it offers insight and techniques to prevent situations that lead to crime and attempts to offer ideas and means for mitigating or minimizing the potential for victimization In many ways the two fields have developed along parallel yet separate paths and the literature on both has been scattered across disciplines as varied as sociology law and criminology public health and medicine political science and public policy economics psychology and human services and more The Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention provides a comprehensive reference work bringing together such dispersed knowledge as it outlines and discusses the status of victims within the criminal justice system and topics of deterring and preventing victimization in the first place and responding to victims needs Two volumes containing approximately 375 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and comprehensive reference resource available on victimology and crime prevention both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage In addition to standard entries leading scholars in the field have contributed Anchor Essays that in broad strokes provide starting points for investigating the more salient victimology and crime prevention topics A representative sampling of general topic areas covered includes interpersonal and domestic violence child maltreatment and elder abuse street violence hate crimes and terrorism treatment of victims by the media courts police and politicians community response to crime victims physical design for crime prevention victims of nonviolent crimes deterrence and prevention helping and counseling crime victims international and comparative perspectives and more
