Vocabulary Personality traits

(See Student's Book p. 11.)

- This lesson presents a number of useful expressions for describing people's personality traits.

Lesson B Networking

Grammar Talking about habits

(See Student's Book p. 13.)

Simple present, present continuous, the verb tend, and the modal verb will can be used to talk about current habits.

Use

- Simple present
 - Ss have learned to use the simple present for things that are true "all the time" and to describe regular activities – in this lesson, habits.
 - Mostly, I call on my cell.*
 - My friends don't use IM.*
- The verb tend (to)
 - I tend to walk everywhere. = I usually walk everywhere.*
 - My son tends to text.*
- Present continuous for longer activities
 - The present continuous can be used in subordinate clauses for a "longer activity" that happens at the same time as another activity.
 - When I'm travelling, I normally use my laptop.*
- Present continuous with always and constantly
 - The present continuous with always or constantly can be used for habits that are noticeable or more frequent than usual.
 - My kids are constantly texting.*
- Frequency expressions to talk about habits
 - mostly, occasionally, normally, (five or six) times a day, always, constantly, all the time*

Vocabulary notebook The right choice?

(See Student's Book p. 19.)

The Learning Tip tells Ss that when they learn a new, informal expression, they should find out its more formal equivalent.

- There is a mix of informal expressions and more neutral expressions that can be used in speaking or writing. The Vocabulary notebook picks up formality issues.
 - She's a bit of a pain. = She can be annoying.*

Grammar extra Frequency expressions; State verbs

(See Student's Book p. 145.)

Grammar Extra provides more information and practice with frequency expressions and their placement. It also reviews and practices state verbs (e.g., believe, know) in present tense.

Corpus information

Talking about habits

People often use will / 'll in statements to talk about habits. Questions and the negative forms will not / won't are rarely used in this meaning.

When tend is used in negative statements, not has two possible positions:

I tend not to text.

I don't tend to text.

Speaking naturally Questions with answers

(See Student's Book p. 138.)

- This section gives Ss practice in using rising intonation when they suggest one or more short answers to their own information questions.
 - When do you update your profile? At night? On weekends?*
